FOREWORD

The Sources

The Family of David. In 1964 the compiler published a volume entitled "Genealogies of the Teel Family of New England and of the Family of David Thomas of Middleboro Massachusetts" (referred to herein as Teel-Thomas). For the Thomas part of that work he used as a framework a typed genealogy of about 200 members of the family of David prepared in 1951 by Mrs. John W. Heinz, National Chairman, Colonial and Genealogical, Daughters of the American Colonists. Teel-Thomas identified about 600 of that family. Corrections and Additions were issued in 1969.

For the present work Teel-Thomas and its Corrections and Additions were used as the basis for the David Thomas family. The principal sources used in 1964 were re-examined. In addition to Heinz these included the published vital records; Mary Lovering Holman's 1926 manuscript of the earliest generations of David's family, which contains certain detail and material from original sources that was not found elsewhere; Davis' Ancient Landmarks of Plymouth, which has genealcgical information on the first few generations of Plymouth County families; records of the First Church of Christ in Middleboro, published originally in 1854 and re-published in Weston's History of Middleboro (pp.640-686), which have valuable genealogical information; and Wood's Record of Deaths in Middleboro, prepared in the middle of the 19th century, which contains considerable information of a genealogical character beyond mere record of deaths.

During his work on the present volume the compiler for the first time heard of the Thatcher Papers, which deal with the family of David Thomas of Middleboro. They were compiled in Middleboro late in the 19th century by Charles M. and Adelaide K. Thatcher. who were Librarians of the Middleboro Public Library. It is understood that only two copies of this work are available to the public, one in New Bedford and one in Plymouth, both in Massachusetts. However, a copy of them was prepared and generously furnished the compiler by Louise Alice (Hart) Hilditch. Although a number of errors in tracing relationships were found in Thatcher, it obviously was based on data from Middleboro vital records. The compiler, working in San Francisco, consulted it for information on many Middleboro births, marriages and deaths after about 1790-1800, since the Mayflower Descendant's publication of them ends at about that period.

The Families of John and of William. The earliest generations of the families of John and of William, both of Marshfield, are given in Davis (mentioned above). Richards' History of Marshfield, and the Genealogy of the Briggs Family, each carry on certain lines and were quite helpful. Beyond these, little was found in the way of published lines of either family.

Very late in the compilation process the compiler learned that the late Milton Halsey Thomas had accumulated much material on the families of John and William. Elizabeth Beaumont (Thomas) (Bassett) Greene had this material, and she graciously made it available for examination and use by the compiler. Although in the limited time available to him he was not able to examine all this material, the compiler was enabled to add a very considerable amount of information on these two families.

All Three Families. For all three families the published vital records were heavily relied upon. Unless the record was clearly wrong it was followed as to dates, and unless the record stated otherwise the event was treated as occurring in the community where recorded. Some genealogies of other families, in addition to Briggs, were found to have information on certain Thomas lines, notably LeBaron, Shurtleff, Waterman and Winslow. One or two lines were found in Representative Men and Old Families of Southeastern Massachusetts, and also in The Thomas Book. The Haskin Family had certain Connecticut lines.

Some lines in Maine were found in the Genealogical and Family History of the State of Maine; in the History of Thomaston, Rockland and South Thomaston; and in Sinnett's manuscript. Virkus provided a few lines. Census and national pension records were consulted when such search seemed likely to be fruitful. All other works listed in the Bibliography found at the end of this volume were consulted for relevant information. Some members of the Thomas families supplied valuable information on certain lines, as noted under Acknowledgements below and in the notes.

Again very late in his work the compiler learned that Priscilla Alden (Fortier) Jones had been collecting an astonishing amount of genealogical data on all three families herein dealt with. Most of her notes are from original Massachusetts or Maine sources, which had not been available to the compiler working in California. Mrs. Jones was most cooperative and generous in offering any and all information that was desired. Since she did not intend to publish her material, the compiler took full advantage of her generosity and spent some little time in Maine going over her records. While he was not able, within time and practicability limitations, to get all that she had, he did get a very substantial amount from her materials to add to his compilation. The short-fall occurs in the seventh and subsequent generations of the families of David and John.

The Notes

It should be stated frankly that in certain cases relationships set forth herein have not been established by evidence that would satisfy the stricter standards of the best genealogists. When this situation occurs the full evidence and reasoning is set out in the notes so that the reader can form his own opinion of the correctness of the result reached. When a relationship has not been previously developed by an authority believed to be reliable and is not clear from the vital records, the way it was developed is fully set out in the notes. In some instances the source of a particular item is indicated in the tables rather than in the notes. When a previous authority is not followed, the reason for this is explained in the notes. Therefore one should ALWAYS CONSULT THE NOTES before accepting any of the lines in the tables.

Where it is stated that "probably" something is so it means that, as far as the compiler could ascertain, it has not heretofore been determined to be so; that while it cannot be said to be conclusively proven, the factual situation and the available vital records strongly indicate the conclusion reached; that nothing in any way conflicting was found, unless otherwise indicated; and that it is believed to be correct. Where the word is "possibly" or "perhaps" it means that it seems to be a reasonable conclusion, but there could be one or more other solutions, equally or perhaps more likely, and in all such cases there should be further research before accepting as definitive the "possible" conclusion. The possibility is included in the hope of its being a useful start for some further search.

The notes also contain any significant biographical information that was found, including war service in abbreviated form. Titles of military officers and ship's captains, professions, and positions in the Church are noted in the tables. Descent from Mayflower passengers also is noted in the tables, but only where it first occurs in the line. Details of the line from that point to the Mayflower passenger can be found in the Mayflower Index. The fact that war service or descent from a Mayflower passenger of a particular person is not noted does not mean it cannot be proven. The research for information mentioned in this paragraph was not intensive, due to limitations of time.

In addition to the notes on various persons, certain notes of general application to all three families dealt with herein will be found on pages 2-4.

Cross-References

Within each of the genealogies (those of David, John and William) each individual is given a number. A cross-reference to a person in one of the genealogies is by that person's number. The number is preceded by the initial of the genealogy in which the person will be found (D, J, or W), except when it is merely identifying the father of a person in the entry of that person's family in the tables. For example: on p.170 #48 in the Genealogy of John Thomas reads in part "48. John, s. John (11)....m.....Hannah Thomas (W60)." This means that John who is #48 was the son of John who is #11 in the same genealogy (that of John of Marshfield), and that John (#48) married Hannah who is #60 in the genealogy of William of Marshfield. If the letter preceding the number is "U" the reference is to the list of Unidentified Thomases on pp.295-304.

An asterisk (*) before a man's number means that his line is carried on in the next generation, and one should look in the next generation for that number to find additional information on him and his family. Also his wife, if a member of the Thomas family before her marriage, is identified by her number. Reference should be made to the wife's number for her birth, death and parents. Her husband's name and number also appear under her number. After marriage all wives are referred to by the number of the husband.

"(N)" in the tables means there is a note on that person, to be found under the number of that person in the notes for that particular genealogy. The notes follow immediately at the end of the tables for each genealogy.

Acknowledgements

There has already been mentioned in this Foreword under "The Sources" the unbelievable mass of genealogical material on all three families which had been accumulated and was generously made available to the compiler by Priscilla Alden (Fortier) Jones of Belfast Maine, daughter of Elizabeth Bradford (Thomas) Fortier (D1523). The compiler is deeply appreciative of this assistance, and thanks Mrs. Jones not only for this courtesy but also for her valuable help in verifying or correcting a number of his lines.

Also there was mentioned under "The Sources" the material on the families of John and William Thomas collected by the late Milton Halsey Thomas (J878) of Princeton New Jersey, which was made available to the compiler by Elizabeth Beaumont (Thomas) (Bassett) Greene(J922) of South Bristol Maine. He wishes to express his appreciation of the service rendered by Mr. Thomas in collecting so much information on those families, and his indebtedness to Mrs. Greene for making it available for use in connection with the present work.

In examining this material it was discovered that William Henry Baldwin Thomas (J928) of Orange Virginia cooperated with Milton Halsey Thomas in developing the material on the family of William Thomas of Marshfield. The compiler wishes to express his appreciation of this contribution of William Henry Baldwin Thomas which was instrumental in producing a more complete genealogy of that family.

While the compiler was considering the preparation of a new set of corrections and additions to Teel-Thomas, Harlan Carther Thomas (D1907) of Itasca Illinois furnished him so much information on descendants of David Thomas of Middleboro that he decided a new Thomas genealogy should be compiled. Thereafter Mr. Thomas continued to furnish information, especially on descendants of Lewis Thomas (D764). He also furnished advice and assistance regarding the publication of this work, without which in all probability the book never would have been published. For thus inspiring the preparation of a Thomas genealogy, for providing a substantial amount of material for inclusion in it, and for the invaluable help provided to bring the work to full fruition, the compiler is extremely grateful.

The compiler is also greatly indebted to Louise Alice (Hart) Hilditch of Melbourne Florida, granddaughter of Julia Isabel (Thomas) Kilton (D1663), for furnishing him, as stated above under "The Sources", the text of the 62 pages of the Thatcher Papers, which she had copied by hand at the New Bedford Public Library. Her generosity enabled him to prepare a substantial part of the Genealogy of the Family of David Thomas of Middleboro. Mrs. Hilditch also furnished information on lines of descent from Lewis Leonard Thomas (D823), which was much appreciated.

Dorothy Stillwell, a genealogical researcher of Woodstock Vermont, graciously volunteered to get for the compiler material on the Thomas families who removed from Middleboro to Woodstock and vicinity toward the end of the eighteenth century. Almost all the material herein on happenings in that area came from her, for which the compiler expresses his deep appreciation.

While the foregoing individuals were major sources of information on one or more of the three Thomas families herein dealt with, the following deserve special note for furnishing information on particular lines:

Margaret (Smith) Stead of Dorval, Quebec, Canada, daughter of Ethel Katherine (Thomas) Smith (D1849), on descendants of Nathaniel Thomas (D463);
Marjorie Shaw (Cowdry) Whidden of Sarasota Florida, daughter of Lila Belle (Thomas) Cowdry (D1764), on descendants of Horatio Nelson Thomas (D551); the late Ruth Easterbrook Thomas (D1811) of Belmont Massachusetts, on descendants of William Thomas (D669);
William Henry McGowen jr. of Birmingham Alabama, son of Edith Cadle (Thomas) McGowen (D1631), on descendants of Daniel Vaughan Thomas (D762);
Bernice Rose (Schweiss) Thomas (D1875) of Pomona California, on descendants of Henry Brigham Thomas (D1819) and certain other descendants of Herbert Edward Thomas (D1640);
Avis Maria (Loura) Thomas (W373) of Novato California, on descendants of Isaac Thomas (W93); and, as stated on p. 10 of the 1949 Corrections and Additions to Teel-Thomas, Everett William Thomas (D1823) of Woodstock Illinois, on descendants of Zadock Thomas (D356).

To all these, and to the many others who have, from time to time, contributed information or advice for this work, the compiler wishes to record his appreciation and thanks.

Apologies

The bulk of the work in preparing this volume had to be done in San Francisco, three thousand miles from the original source materials of Plymouth County, Massachusetts. Consequently there are certainly countless omissions, and it would be a miracle if a number of errors had not crept in. For all omissions and errors the compiler offers his apologies.

NOTES having GENERAL APPLICATION to ALL THREE FAMILIES

Communities of Plymouth County. The communities mentioned in this work which were organized in the first 200 years in Plymouth County and its immediate vicinity are shown in their approximate locations on the map opposite, together with the date of their being organized as separate communities.

Thomas Families of Plymouth County and Surrounding Areas. This work deals with three Thomas Families, those descended from David of Middleboro, John of Marshfield, and William of Marshfield. William was certainly here by November 1636. John came in 1635. David came to Salem about 1640, but was in Plymouth County and probably in Middleboro by 1669.

Although all three families came to this country about the same time and eventually settled within a few miles of each other---two of them in the same town--- yet no one has traced any relationship between them. This would have to be done through English records, which the compiler did not feel he could attempt. As far as could be determined, these were the only founders of Thomas families in America who located in Plymouth County.

There were other Thomas families not far away. Rhode Island, which adjoins Bristol County, Massachusetts, had such families. They spilled over into Bristol County. Thomas families from Worcester County, Massachusetts, are also found in Bristol County; and Thomas families from Plymouth County likewise settled in Bristol County, primarily in New Bedford and Taunton. Further north a Capt. John Thomas came to Boston from England about 1693-4, and his son John, at first of Braintree, finally settled in Weymouth in Norfolk County. Thomas families from Plymouth County also settled in Weymouth.

As far as it could be done from available materials, the members of the three Plymouth County families were traced out, at least until they left the County and immediately adjacent areas. Individuals descended from founders of other Thomas families as a rule were not dealt with.

Removals from Massachusetts. Weston (p.xxii) states that in the last quarter of the 18th century over 50 families from Middleboro removed to Woodstock Vermont, and this is reflected in Dana (p.80) and in the Middleboro vital records. About one third of these families were Thomas families, not counting the Thomas girls who married and removed there with their husbands. In particular, several branches of the "Pond Thomas" family (descendants of William Thomas (D9)) went to Woodstock. Some members of other branches of the family of David (D1) also went there. Some Thomas families from Middleboro went to other parts of Vermont. As far as is known, few if any Thomas families who were descended from John (J1) went to Vermont. However, perhaps 15 or more branches of the John Thomas family removed to Maine prior to 1820, and as many if not more of the David Thomas family also went there. (Maine was part of Massachusetts until 1820.) Strangely only two or three branches of each of these families removed to New Hampshire, about half a dozen to Connecticut, and another half dozen to Rhode Island.

Removals in the family of William (W1) followed a different pattern. Two Loyalists, Nathaniel Ray (W54) and John (W63), went to Nova Scotia when the Rev War broke; William (W127) and John (W83) went to the Poughkeepsie-Albany area; and William (W75) went to North Carolina---the only person of any of these families who went to the South. No one of the family of William (W1) was found who removed to another of the New England States.

Dates. In 1752 the New Style calendar replaced the Old Style in Great Britain and her colonies, including America. The Old Style calendar by then had accumulated eleven days more than the true solar calendar. To correct this, the day after September 2, 1752 became September 14 instead of September 3, thus dropping the eleven days.

Until 1752 the year was considered beginning March 25 instead of the calendar date of January 1. Therefore dates in January, February and March (before March 25) are frequently double-dated, thus: January 14, 1732/3. Beginning with 1753 the year commenced January 1, and double-dating was no longer necessary. (Collier's Encyclopedia, 1968 ed., v.5,p.139)

Freemen. In the early years to become a freeman one was required to be a respectable member of some church. Persons were made freemen by order of the General Court (the legislature), later by the Quarterly Courts (the judicial courts). Only freemen could vote. (New Plymouth, pt.2, p.77)

Titles. Esq. was applied to lawyers. Mr. was applied to people of some prominence such as captains, eminent merchants, schoolmasters, people with college degrees, etc. Mrs. was sometimes applied to the daughters of such people, as well as to married ladies or widows. (Felt, Ipswich, p.23)

Mayflower Descendants. Descent can be proved from only fifty of the one hundred four Mayflower passengers, and these fifty can be divided into twenty-three family groups. These groups are set forth in Mayflower Descendant, v.29, p.83. They are:

John Alden, w. Priscilla Mullins, and her parents William and Alice Mullins.

NOTES on the

DAVID THOMAS FAMILY

NOTES on the DAVID THOMAS FAMILY

D1. David Thomas, the founder of the Middleboro Thomas family, is thought to have been born in Wales about 1620 (Holman,p.1). He prob came to America about 1640-1 in the Sampson (Virkus, v.6,p.809). It certainly is a fact that at a session of the Quarterly Courts in Salem on 8 Jul 1645 "David (also Davie) Thomas" was a witness in a suit for defamation of character brought by John Bartoll against Alice, wife of John Peach jr., for having said that the plaintiff's wife, Parnell Bartoll, had "committed adultery with the boatswain of the ship Sampson in the cabin of Parnell about four years ago." (Quart Courts, v.1,p.78) This is the first record of David Thomas in America.

He lived in that part of Salem which was about to become the Town of Marblehead, for he is named in the record of a meeting of people of that area held 22 Dec 1648, at which the division of common lands was settled. The apportionment reads: "finding the comons but littell as we conceive to pasture not more than fifty head of cattell, or cows, accounting a horse or mare as two cows, two yearling cattell for one cow, four goats or sheep to a cow, a steer or bullock of two years ould as a cowe, the number of families in the plantation being 44, thus limited...David Thomas 1/2 cow." (Roads, pp.18-20)

David left Marblehead prob early in 1661, and removed to that part of Salem which later became Beverly. He was certainly there by June 1661, for a "determination" in a suit between William Dodge and Roger Haskell, filed with the Court 29 Jun 1661, refers to "the land [in Salem] now in the occupation of David Thomas". (Quart Courts, v.2, pp.313-14)

There are at least two maps showing the location of the Salem (Beverly) property of David Thomas. One is in Perley (v.2 opposite p.417). This is the map used in connection with the separation of Beverly from Salem in 1669; but it is more of a diagrammatic sketch of the lots than a detailed map drawn to scale. The other map is entitled "Probable Division of Land 1636 1700 in 'Bass River-Side' Salem Beverly", and it is found in The Chronicles of the Haskell Family, by Ira J. Haskell. It was carefully developed to scale from early deeds.

Both maps agree in giving David Lot 16, which seems to have had no house on it while David owned it. However, while the Perley map would indicate that David also owned all of Lot 15, the Haskell map indicates most of that lot was owned by Roger Haskell. Lot 15 fronted on what is now Cabot St., across the street from and perhaps 300 yards south of the John Balch house, built in 1636, which still stands. Applying the scale of the Haskell map, Lot 15 contained about 25 acres. When David sold to Hooper in 1668 he described what must have been his part of it as "five acres of land, be it more or less, with a dwelling house there upon". (Essex Deeds, bk.3,pp.50,166-8, from Jones) As near as the compiler can locate David's property from the description in this deed, it was at the rear of Lot 15 near the intersection of what are now Colon and Heather Streets, on the westerly side of Heather St.

By a bill of sale dated 30 May 1664 "Deauead Thommas of Bass River [sold] to Richard Norman of Marbellhead, one-half a cow's pasture upon the town common". (Quart Courts, v.4,p.30) A court proceeding shows he had apparently tried to dispose of his house in Marblehead, for by writ dated 18 May 1668 David Thomas of Bass River sued "Hen. Peass" for a debt "concerning a house situate in Marvelhead". (Quart Courts,v.4,p.30) Nevertheless, David Thomas is recorded as one of the householders of Marblehead in 1674. (Roads,p.28) As above stated, David sold his Beverly land-holdings to William Hooper by deed dated 10 February and acknowledged 12 March 1668/9.

It is significant that his wife Joanna executed her consent to the sale of the Beverly property by an instrument dated in Plymouth 14 Jul 1669 (Essex Deeds, bk.3, pp.57,189). It seems this must have been the year David moved to Middleboro. For a possible reason for the move see note D6. Note that the birth of his son Edward on 6 Feb 1669 is the first entry in the Town Records of Middleboro, even though that entry may have been made at a later date,since the Town Records are said to have been destroyed by the Indians in King Philip's War in 1675 (see Weston, p.33).

David was a farmer of Middleboro (Weston,p.34; Holman), and his was one of the 16 families that constituted the Town in 1675 (Baylies,Pt.2,p.230). In that year when the Indians attacked Middleboro the inhabitants had to flee to Plymouth. After the war they returned, and on 28 Jun 1677 those who had owned land there, numbering 68 persons, met and agreed to re-settle the town. They called themselves "proprietors of the town of Middleberry". The list of proprietors showed David Thomas given "1 propriation". (Weston,pp.550-52)

Middleboro was originally purchased from the Indians by the so-called Twenty-Six Men's Purchase in 1662. Though not an original purchaser, David bought into that purchase later. (Weston,p.53;Holman,p.1) He was, however, an original purchaser of the Sixteen Shilling Purchase of 1675, which was apportioned to the purchasers on 21 Nov 1679 (Weston,pp.619-21). His son David (D2) was an original purchaser of the Eight Men's Purchase of 3 Jun 1696 (Weston,p.626).

David's house in Middleboro was a little distance southeast of the town proper, at the end of what is now Thomas St., in an area that became known as Thomastown. A number of David's descendants still live there. (Weston,p.53)

The foregoing are all the significant facts about the life of David Thomas that could be ascertained. On 3 Oct 1689 administration on his estate was granted to his widow Joanna. (Gen.Adv.,v.1,p.73; Holman,p.1; Transc. 7 Apr 1930, #9729)

Thatcher (p.13) shows David had a s. Thomas who, in turn, had a s. Thomas who m. Mary ---- and had a dau Mercy b. 1733. However, no reference to David's s. Thomas or to any of his descendants was found in any other work. They are thought to be doubtful and are omitted from the tables herein. But see "Mrs. Mary Thomas" (U145) who possibly was the wid. of the second Thomas Thomas and the mother of Mercy.

D2. Although Midd Ch. (p.82) and Heinz show that David (2) m. (1) bef 1669 Abigail Wood, this seems very unlikely. It would mean that Abgail m. at age 14, which is possible but unlikely. Furthermore, no ch. were b. until c. 1676, which would be most unlikely if the marriage was in 1669 or before. Holman says that marriage was c. 1675, and this is followed herein. See also Atwood, pp.3-4.

Plmth Col (v.6,p.86) says "Daniel Thomas Junior" was chosen constable of Midd on 1 Jun 1680. There was only one Daniel Thomas in Plmth Colony bef 1680 as far as is known, Daniel of Marsh (J5), s. John (J1), b. 1659. It is believed that "Daniel" is an erroneous transcription of "David", and that David (D2), b. 1649/50, s. David (D1), was chosen constable. He was a "Junior" which Daniel (J5) was not, and he was of Midd which Daniel was not.

D3. Boston VR show under date of 2 Jan 1681/2 that David and Joanna Thomas had a dau Mary, and under date of 15 Sep 1683 that they had a dau Joanna (VR,pp.156,161). David (D1) was the David with a w. Joanna (Davis). He certainly had a dau Joanna (D3) whose marriage and death are recorded (Midd VR in 2 MD 157; Midd Ch.,p.82). She had m. 1680, and she d. 1718 "in 61st yr", hence was b.c.1657. She was not b. 1683. The date shown in the Boston record must have been the date of recording, not the date of birth of Joanna; and prob the date against the birth of Mary is likewise the date of recording, not of birth. David (D1) had no known ch. b. aft Edward (D7), b. 1669.

Information on Joseph Vaughan, h. Joanna, is from 23 Am.Gen 27 and Harding.

D4. Several authorities say Jeremiah was s. Nathaniel (W2), not of David (D1). (See Savage; Davis,pp.160-1; Thomas Bk,p.151; and Thatcher,p.1.) Later authorities either do not give Jeremiah to Nathaniel or give him to David. (See Richards,p.86; Weston, p.53; and Heinz.) Jeremiah was of Midd, which is replete with records of him and his family, but no record of any kind of Jeremiah is found in Marsh.

However, all doubts on the point are resolved by the probate proceedings of the estate of David (D1). (Plmth Co. Probate #20274) They are quoted in Holman and in Transc. 7 Apr 1930 #9729, and are abstracted in Gen.Adv., v.1,p.73. They recite under date of 3 Oct 1689 that "Joanna Thomas Relict widdow, of David Thomas late of middlebury deceased", with "David Thomas Jerimiah Thomas, her sons" as sureties, was appointed to "administer on the estate of her deceased husband above-named". Jeremiah is thus shown to have been the son of David (D1) and Joanna.

An incident about the tombstones of the two wives of Jeremiah is perhaps of interest. At the beginning of a short article in 12 MD 66 is a photograph of the tombstones of Jeremiah's two wives, Lydia who d. 1717 and Mary who d. 1749, with his own stone between them. He d. 1736. At the bottom of Lydia's stone is the following inscription: "She was ye first person buried in this place." The article points out, what is evident in the photograph, that "Mary's stone bears the same inscription.... /the stones/ are the same size and have the same ornamentation." The article deduces that prob "the stone cutter was directed to make a duplicate of the first wife's stone, except as to name, date and age, and followed his instructions too literally".

D6. Wood (his #5) says William "Fled from Salem witchcraft to Middleboro". As William was b.c. 1665 and his family moved to Midd in 1669, this must refer to his father. (see note D1) On Sarah see note D34.

D7. Edward of Midd has, in at least one early work, been confused with Edward of Boston. (See Davis,p.355) The latter Edward m. (1) 4 Oct 1689 Elizabeth Winslow and (2) Boston 7 May 1706 Willoughby Knotsford. (Wyman,p.939; VR) He obviously was a different person from Edward of Midd who m. Mary Nelson and had ch. by her in Midd 1694-1712.

Edward (D7), with three others, in 1715 built and became part owners of a saw-mill. (Weston,p.387)

There is a dispute as to the identity of the w. of Edward. Heinz says she was Mary Bowne, prob of Salem, and although there was nothing in the published VR or in Bowne to confirm this, the compiler followed Heinz in Teel-Thomas. Tingley (p.267) says she was Lucy Nelson; but the Midd VR (3 MD 83) say Fear (D49) was dau of "Edward and Mary". Thatcher (p.13) says Edward's w. was Mary Nelson. But the Nelson Genealogy (Nelson,p.35) does not show a Mary or a Lucy anywhere in the early generations of the Nelson family.

However, the will of William Nelson (Plmth Probate #14589) dated 20 Mar 1717/18 resolves the confusion, for in it he refers to his ch. by name, including "Mary Thomas, w. Edward Thomas". (Jones)

D8. See note D3.

D9. The will of Edward Bates dated 8 Jan 1723/4 (Suffolk Probate bk.612,p.115) refers to "my three daughters, viz: Susanna Thomas of Middleboro, Elizabeth Bates and Mary Bates of Boston /and/ my granddaughter Mary Thomas now with me." (122 Reg 50) At this time the only Thomas of Midd who had a w. Susanna was William (D9), and William and Susanna had a dau Mary (D54), b. 1713. Furthermore, Bates (p.20) says Susanna, dau Edward Bates, m. William Thomas. This should set at rest the opinion once held that Susanna, w. William Thomas (D9), was Susanna Pratt, dau Samuel and Mary Pratt. See, for example, Pratt,p.58; Holman; Heinz; Thatcher,p.20; and MI #66453. The error is exposed in a note by Jones in 122 Reg 50, and the Mayflower Society has corrected the line of MI #66453.

The confusion seems to have been caused by Pratt (p.58) which says that Samuel and Mary Pratt had s. Samuel b. 15 Nov 1670 and "probably also had three daughters whose Christian names are not certainly known...but it is believed" that one of them was "Susanna Pratt who married William Thomas of Middleboro before 1711". Samuel's father, Phineas Pratt, did have a gr.dau who m. William Thomas of Midd bef 1711, and she prob was dau Samuel, but her name was Sarah, not Susanna, and she m. William (D6), not William (D9). (122 Reg 50) See note D34.

D10. Thatcher (p.13) gives Jonathan (D10) to David (D1), while Davis (p.355) gives him to David (D2). The will of David (D2) dated 14 Feb 1732/3 mentions a deceased s. Jonathan (Holman). There had been only one Jonathan in the Colony at that time. He is accordingly treated herein as s. David (D2).

D11. Davis (p.355) gives David (D2) the ch. listed in the tables as his ch. except for David (D11). However, Midd Ch. (p.82) shows that the David who was 60 yr old in 1710 (i.e.DavidD2) had a s. David; Wood (his #1 and #2) shows that "David jr. s. David" d. 22 May 1706 in 26th yr, and his w. Hannah d. 9 May 1704; and Midd VR (2 MD 43) show that David Thomas m. 9 Sep 1703 Hannah Steward.

D13. Joseph's "wid Elizabeth" was appointed to administer his estate 4 Nov 1728. (Plmth Probate,v.5,p.600---Docket 20381. From Jones.) Nothing more is known of her.

D14. See note J17.

D15. Holman says (p.8) that Elizabeth m. 16 Mar 1725/6 John Robbins, and that she d. aft 1747. Holman has been found to be very carefully done. Thatcher (p.17) also says Elizabeth m. John Robbins. However, Davis (p.219) says she m. Nathaniel Robbins, bro John; but at p.355 it says merely that she m. "a Robbins". Only Holman gives the date of marriage, so undoubtedly found the record. The compiler follows Holman.

D23. George Hackett's death and parentage are from Transc 4 Feb 1931 #2429.

D29. Davis (p.260), Heinz and Thatcher all show a dau Sophia for Jeremiah (D4). However, no record of her birth was found in VR or church records, and she is not mentioned in Jeremiah's will, as are all his other ch. For this reason she is not credited to him by the Editor of MD (20 MD 131). She prob d.y., but is included herein (D29).

D34. On 26 Nov 1737 and again on 1 Jul 1738 a William Thomas of Midd signed as an heir of Phineas Pratt of Charlestown. The papers in Middlesex Probate Docket #17922 show he was a great gr.s. of Phineas. As a note by Jones shows (122 Reg 50), this was clearly William (D34), whose mother, Sarah Pratt (D6), must have been the gr.dau of Phineas and his w. Mary (Priest) Pratt; but while Sarah's father prob was Samuel he might have been PeterPratt, bro Samuel. See note D9.

D35. Midd Ch. (p.19 #23 and #39) says William Thomas jr. b. 1700, s. William sr., (i.e.D34) had sis Mary (D35) who m. Jacob Soule. This resolves the problem created by there being two Marys, both b. Midd 1701, one who m. Jacob Soule and the other (D46) who d. 1719.

D40. An Israel of Midd was a minuteman Pvt 19 Apr 1775, service 2 dy. An Israel of Midd served in 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, pp.118, 137; DAR-PI) DAR-PI shows Israel (D40), b. 1712/13, d. 1778, served in the Rev War, but he was not the Israel who served 1780 for Israel (D40) d. 29 Jun 1778. Mass SS Rev shows the same man served 6-9 May 1778 and 6-12 Sep 1778. Since Israel (D40) d. Jun 1778 all the service in 1778 as well as that in 1780 must have been Israel (D127). This means that Israel (D40) was the minuteman of 1775.

D42. "Ephraim", b. 1718 (D42), served in the Rev War 1776 and 1780. "Ephraim jr." b. 1740 (D133) was a Pvt minuteman 19 Apr 1775 and again served in 1778. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, pp.117,125-128)

D46. See note D35.

D57. J.Shaw is in error in saying (p.42) Samuel m. Mehitable Weston. "Samuel Thomas 2d" m. Mehitable Barrows (Midd Ch. #45) and "Lemuel Thomas, s. Jeremiah and Miriam" (D87) m. Mehitable Weston (Midd Ch. #513). Samuel was prob called "2d" because Samuel (D16) was still living. Thatcher (pp.3 and 18) follows Midd Ch., and so does the compiler. Samuel was Pvt in the Rev War 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.138)

D58. Dea. Benjamin Thomas was prob the most prominent man of Thomastown (see note D1). "He was not liberally educated, but was a man of strong common sense, of sturdy principles, well versed in the scriptures, conscientious in the performance of every duty, and was well known throughout the County." He was Dea. 1776, Representative 1782, and a Member of the Convention which adopted the Federal Constitution of 1788. (Weston, p.329)

"Benjamin" was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, pp.123, 125-128; 138; DAR-PI) DAR-PI says this was Benjamin (D58). Certainly "Benjamin jr." who served 1778 was D189, b. 1749, the son, not D58 the father. Benjamin (D58) was apparently the "Benjamin" who served in 1776 when he was 55, and in 1780 when he was 59.

D59. Eliezer was a Pvt minuteman 19 Apr 1775, and served as Corp. 1776. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.117)

D67. Zephaniah's second marriage is shown in Thatcher #142. Information on his second wife is from 130 Reg 141. Zephaniah was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.138)

D68. Josiah was a Pvt in the Rev War 1777 and 1778, and was a drummer 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.138)

D70. Thatcher (p.39) says Thomas Torrey m. Abigail (D70), dau Henry and Ruth Thomas. However, the will of "Ruth Thomas, wid. Henry Thomas" (D17), (Plmth Probate bk.20, p.538; Docket #20538) makes bequests to two "gr. sons Ebenezer Hackett and Henry Hackett, ch. of Ebenezer Hackett". (Jones) Abigail, dau Henry and Ruth, had m. Ebenezer Hackett (24 MD 131). See note D225. For Thomas Torrey's marriage see M49.

D72. Barzillai was a Pvt in the Rev War 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev)

D73. Moses served as Pvt in the Rev War 1778. (Mass SS Rev)

Deborah Shaw who m. Moses (D73) was b. 1729, dau Moses Shaw according to the 1972 Shaw Genealogy (J.Shaw,pp.22,41). No other record of her birth or of any Deborah Shaw b. 1729 has been found except in P.Thomas, which merely says she was "b.1729, dau George". P.Thomas seems to have been in error as to her father. George had no dau Deborah (J.Shaw,p.18). J.Shaw had not been published when the compiler published his Teel-Thomas in 1964. He accordingly then followed P.Thomas. Now it appears appropriate to follow this 1972 Shaw genealogy.

D76. Elijah was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776, Corp. 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev)

D77. See note D185.

D78. In his 1964 Teel-Thomas the compiler followed Heinz and showed Enoch, b. 1748, was s. Jedediah (D45). This is now believed to have been an error. Midd VR show that Enoch b. 10 Aug 1748 (D78) was s. Henry and Ruth (17 MD 20), and they show no s. of Jedediah named Enoch. Enoch m. Midd 1 Oct 1772 Mary Howland (Bailey,v.2,p.91), and Thatcher (p.39) and DAR-PI both show this was Enoch b. 10 Aug 1748. These records rather than Heinz are now followed.

The births of Enoch's ch. are from Thatcher (p.40). DAR App. 449359 gives the marriage of Roba (D239). The marriage of Hope (D240) is from Stillwell.

Enoch was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776, 1777, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; DAR App. 449359; Weston,p.137). See note D341.

D81. John "of Midd" was Pvt in the Rev War 1776 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev) This may have been D81, b.1728; or D147, b.1744; or D165, b.1736/7.

D83. Jeremiah was a Pvt in the Rev War 1777, 1780 and 1781. (Mass SS Rev; 162 DAR Lin 175; Weston, p.133)

D87. See note D57. See also note D261 for Mehitable.

D90. In his 1964 Teel-Thomas (p.39) the compiler followed Heinz and showed that Charles (D90) m. Deborah Brewster and had a dau Deborah who m. Frederick Beth. He has since discovered that the Charles who m. Deborah Brewster was Charles (J208). (Sinnett,p.4; MI #4882) See note J208.

Thatcher says (p.3) that Charles (D90) "pub. Deborah Cushman Mar 23, 1761". The only Deborah Cushman found who might have m. in 1761 was Deborah (Raymond) Cushman, dau Barnabus and Alice (Bent) Raymond, who m. John Cushman 3 Feb 1746. (Raymond,v.2,pp.43-44; 16 MD 109) Although no record of his death was found, they had no ch. aft 1754 (Cushman,p.59). In all probability John Cushman d. bet 1754-60, and Deborah, his wid., m. Charles (D90). (H.Thomas)

Charles was a Pvt in the Rev War (Mass SS Rev).

D92. See note D117.

D95. See note D271. Jedediah's marriage to Hannah Cushman is from Heinz. The compiler found no confirmation, and hence treats it as only a possibility.

D98. There were two of the name Mercy Thomas in Midd: Mercy (D98) was b. Midd 5 Mar 1734/5, while Mercy (D163) was b. Midd 12 May 1733 (12 MD 230, 233). One Mercy m. 26 Jul 1750 Dea. George Shaw (18 MD 83); and the other m. 1 Nov 1753 Gideon Tinkham (19 MD 46). Thatcher says at p. 4 that Mercy (D98) m. Gideon Tinkham, but at p. 61 it says Gideon m. Mercy (D163). The will of William (D53), father of Mercy (D163), settles the question, for it refers to his "dau Mercy Tinkham". (Jones mss in Library of N.E.Historic Genealogical Society, cited in 51 Am. Gen. 146) It follows that Mercy (D98) m. Dea. George Shaw, which is confirmed by the fact that "Mercy, wid. George Shaw" d. Wareham Feb 1825 "ae 90" (Wood, his Shaw #137). Mercy (D98) but not Mercy (D163) would have been 90 in 1825.

Although J. Shaw (p.18) gives no s. George to George and Mercy Shaw, neither does it mention any George who m. Mercy Thomas. Elkenah, James and Mary Shaw were ch. of George and Mercy (Rich) Shaw, b. Eastham 1724-31 (VR in 16 MD 197). However, this family must have moved to Midd. Elkenah Shaw of Midd. m. Plmth 1745 (17 MD 5); James Shaw of Midd. m. Midd 1749 Lois Thomas (D97), sis Mercy (D98) (18 MD 82); and Mary Shaw of Midd m. Midd 1746/7 Eliezer Thomas (D59) (16 MD 109). Shurtleff (v.1, p.72; rev.ed. v.1,p.79) implies that this family had moved to Midd; and J. Shaw (p.18) even thinks these ch. were b. Midd. Finally we find that George Shaw jr. of Midd m. Midd 26 Jul 1750 Mercy Thomas (D98) (18 MD 83). Not only is there no doubt that George and Mercy (Rich) Shaw were the parents of Elkenah, James and Mary, who were b. Eastham and who were of Midd when they married, but likewise there should be no doubt that "George Shaw jr. of Midd" who m. Midd was s. George and Mercy. There was no other George in Midd who could have been George sr.

D99. Nehemiah Allen rem. to Oakham 1778, where he became moderator 1783 and selectman 1787. He was a Capt.in the Rev War.(Mass SS Rev; Oakham 14, p.37; Oakham 47,p.369)

D101. Isaac was a Sgt in the Rev War 1776, and also served 1778. (Mass SS Rev)

D102. Foxel was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775. He served again later in 1775 and in 1778. He became a Corp. (Mass SS Rev), a Sgt (Weston,p.119), and at length a 2d Lieut (Heitman; DAR-PI).

D103. Abner Barrows wrote a Midd diary of the French War 1756-7. (VR)

D105. Ebenezer was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775. He prob served again as Pvt 1776 and 1778, but perhaps this was Ebenezer (D77). (Mass SS Rev; Weston,pp.117,134) Information regarding Ebenezer's family was from Cushman (p.119).

D109. Jacob was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775, serving as Pvt. He served as Sgt.1776 and 1780, and also served 1778. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,pp.119,125-28)

D111. See note D206.

D116. Thomas Ellis was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776 and 1778. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.123)

D117. MI #34519 shows Sarah Thomas who m. Thomas Wood was Sarah (D92), dau Jeremiah (D20); but Jones says the Mayflower Society has corrected this to show she was Sarah (D117), dau William (D34).

D125. Jabez was a Pvt in the Rev War 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.137)

D126. "David 2d" was a Pvt minuteman 19 Apr 1775 and served also in 1776, 1777, 1778 and 1780 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; Weston,p.118) He was perhaps in the Boston Tea Party, but see note D167. He prob was called "David 2d" because he was b. 1743 whereas David (D167) had been b. 1741/2.

D127. Israel served as Pvt in the Rev War 1778 and 1780. See note D40.

D131. Levi served during the Rev War as Pvt 1776, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; Weston,p.137)

D132. Joshua was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775, and served again 1777-1783. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.118) See U120-123 for ch. of Joshua and Phebe.

D133. See note D42.

D135. Elisha was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775, later a Sgt. He served again 1776, 1777, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, pp.119, 125-28, 133, 137)
He was a pioneer of Oxford ME, settling there in a log cabin on a small clearing. (Biog.Rev., p.294) See note D414.

D141. Tradition has it that the Oliver iron foundry and slitting mill, erected in Midd. shortly aft 1744, had only one competitor---a mill in Boston. The latter had a secret process which permitted them to turn out better nail rods. Oliver offered money to Hushai Thomas (D141), "a young man of remarkable mechanical skill", if he would build him a better mill which could turn out the quality of the Boston mill. Hushai then disappeared, and a little later an unkempt simpleton appeared in Boston who played with children near the mill. He slept in barns and lived as he could. One day when the mill door was open he led the boys inside, but was there only a few minutes. Soon Hushai re-appeared in Midd and the new mill was built, which turned our nail rods equal to any. (Weston,pp.361-2)
Hushai was a Pvt in the Rev War 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.137)

D142. Zadock was a Pvt in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI)

D144. Rowland was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776. (Mass SS Rev)

D145. A Nathan "of Midd" served as a Pvt 1780 and 1781 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, p.138) Nathan (D145) would have been the right age to have served then. However, in 1776 his father named another s. Nathan (D151), which sheds much doubt that Nathan (D145) was then living. See note D397 and note D151.

D146. Midd VR show Elisha Tinkham "of Wstk" m. (int) 16 Feb 1798 Zilla Thomas. (Jones; Thatcher, his #239) There was only one Elisha Tinkham who could have m. 1798, namely, Elisha, b. 1742, s. Jeremiah and Naomi Tinkham. He had m. three times, his third w. dying in 1796. (Heinz)

Zilla (D146), b. 1742, was the same age as this Elisha. No record of her is found in Midd. aft her birth (unless it be this record of a marriage); but "Zilla Thomas, formerly of Midd, d. at Bridg VT" (Col.Cen. of 15 Feb 1837---from Jones). Bridg VT is close to Wstk.

It would seem that this Elisha and this Zilla were the ones who m. (int) 16 Feb 1798; but the report of her death as Zilla "Thomas" possibly raises a question whether the marriage actually took place.

D147. See note D81.

D150. Oliver Williams was later a Col. He was Town Clerk of Wstk about 40 yr. (Dana, p.39)

D151. Nathan may have served in the Rev War 1780 and 1781, although only 14 or 15 yr of age. See note D145 and note D397.

D157. Daniel was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, pp.125-28) According to Dana (p.80) Mary Jakok, the second w. of Daniel and later second w. of David (D167), "was an English lady, and could exhort a meeting in a way few men could equal".

D158. Job served in the Rev War 1776, 1778 and 1780 as Pvt. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, pp.125-28)

D159. Elias rem. to Wstk 1774. He was Selectman there 1791. (Dana,pp.190,582) He was a Scout Pvt in the Rev War in 1777. He was one of those 20 who marched through the forest to Saratoga NY, joined Gen. Gates' forces, and assisted in the taking of Burgoyne's army 17 Oct 1777. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI) See article about this in VT Standard of 6 Aug 1885, p.2. (Stillwell; Cushing,p.280)

In 1817 Elias rem. to Middlebury NY (now called Wyoming).

D161. William Smith jr. was Lieut.Col. of the MA Militia in the Rev War. (Virkus, v.3,p.18)

D163. See note D98.

D165. See note D81.

D166. Sylvanus was a Sgt. in 1778 in the Rev War. He served also 1776 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; Weston,pp.125-28, 138)

D167. David is said to have been one of the "Mohawks" in the Boston Tea Party on 16 Dec 1773. (Vermont,v.2,p.474; Jones) Jones suggests it might have been David (D126), not D166, but the compiler doubts that this tradition would have found its way into a Vermont historical work if the man concerned was D126 who never went to Vermont.

David was a Sgt minuteman 19 Apr 1775. He later served as 1st lieut. in the MA Colonial Line in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Heitman; Weston,p.119; Stillwell; 18 DAR Lin 354; 46 DAR Lin 301)

See note D157 on his second wife Mary Jakok.

D169. See note D161.

D170. Phineas m. Midd 27 Mar 1777 "Mary Thomas". (Bailey,bk.2,p.96; Thatcher #228) Wstk VR also show this date for his marriage. But Phineas' dau Deborah (D411) says her mother was called "Mercy". (Stillwell; and see Thatcher #228) This would not be unusual, for Mercy and Mary were sometimes used for the same person in those days. See note D176 for more on the w. of Phineas.

Phineas was a minuteman Pvt 19 Apr 1775. He served again later in 1775, and served as Sgt 1776 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, pp.119,125-28) He became a Lieut. 1780 (Rolls,p.280).

In Wstk he was Selectman 1782, 1783, 1789 and 1790. In 1783 he was Town Representative at the State Government. He became a Deacon and, about 1791, a Colonel. He was Moderator of the Town 1797. He built and operated a saw-mill in Wstk. (Dana,pp.582, 580; Stillwell)

D172. Joseph was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775, and served again 1776, 1778 and as Sgt in 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,pp.119,138)

The records of the Midd Ch. raise a problem with regard to Deborah, w. Joseph. At #550 they say Deborah, w. Joseph, was "b.1736, mo.386" (Weston,p.667), which means she was b. 1736 and her mother was #386. #386 is Sarah, w. Ephraim Thomas (D42). (Weston,p.661) But there is no other record of Ephraim and Sarah having a dau Deborah. Furthermore, Ephraim did not m. Sarah until 20 Dec 1739 (W.Bridg VR), so it is extremely doubtful that they had a dau Deborah b. 1736. Finally, and it would seem conclusively, Deborah's grave in Wstk's Hardy Cemetery states she d. 12 Nov 1824, ae 74 (Stillwell), i.e. she was b.c. 1750. The only Deborah discovered who was b.c. 1750 was Deborah (D255) b. Midd 16 Feb 1750, dau Lemuel and Mehitable Thomas . (Midd VR in 22 MD 148) The Church record appears to be wrong both as to the date of birth of Deborah and as to her mother. Aft Joseph d. Deborah rem. to Wstk.

D173. See notes D170 and D176.

D175. Andrew served in the Rev War as Pvt 1777 and 1778. (Mass SS Rev; Rolls,pp.280, 285; Stillwell)

D176. In the eighteenth century the names Mary, Mercy, Marcy, Molly and Polly were sometimes used interchangeably. It is a bit difficult to identify the Thomas girls in some of the following marriages:

"Mary" m. Midd 22 Mar 1777 Phineas Thomas (D170), bp Midd 31 Dec 1749. (Bailey, bk.2,p.96)

"Mercy of Midd" m. Taunt 13 Sep 1781 Barzillai Thomas jr. (D219), b. 19 Apr 1761. (Taunt VR)

"Molly" m. Plymp 29 Nov 1781 William Shurtleff jr., b. Stoughton 2 Nov 1756. (Plymp VR)

"Molly" m. (int) 1 Jul 1784 Solomon Thomas (D204), b. Midd 18 Oct 1761 (Thatcher,p.23), and "Molly w. Solomon" d. 6 Sep 1807 in 46th yr. (Wood #54)

"Molly" m. 2 Mar 1789 Henry Thomas (D222), b. Midd 18 Sep 1763 (Thatcher, p.39), and "Mary", wid.Henry, d. 15 Jan 1844 ae 81. (Wood #85)

Two of these are easily disposed of. (1) Sylvanus (D166) in his will mentions his dau Molly as the w. of Henry Thomas, i.e. Molly (D389) m. Henry Thomas (D222). (2) Mary (Molly) (D261), dau Lemuel (D87), m. William Shurtleff jr.---see note D261 for explanation.

This leaves three girls to be identified, but only two girls of these names are found. They are:

"Mercy" (D173), b. 4 Jul 1753, dau Joseph (D55). (Thatcher,p.21)

"Mary" (D176), bp 1 Nov 1767, dau Joseph (D55). (Jones)

Of these, Mercy was nearest in age to Phineas. Although his marriage record shows he m. "Mary", his wife was called "Mercy"---see note D170. Col.Cen. of 16 Nov 1836 reports that the w. of Phineas d. Wstk ae 82, but no date of d. is given. Mercy (D176) had just completed her 83d yr in the middle of 1836. Her father was bro of the father of Phineas, and it was not uncommon for first cousins to marry in those days. Furthermore, Phineas and his w. rem. to Wstk. The following members of Mercy's family rem. to Wstk: bro Andrew (D175), bro Jonathan (D177), sis Hope (D174), wid. of bro Joseph (D172), and prob her sis Mary (D176),the only other member of her family---see below. It seems that it was Mercy (D173) who m. Phineas.

Mary was sis Mercy. Since Barzillai, but not Solomon, rem. to Wstk, there is the same reason (based on family removals) for saying Mary m. Barzillai as that set forth with respect to Mercy above. Furthermore, Barzillai's mother was sis of the mother of Mary, while Solomon was not that closely related. Again the situation is parallel to that of Mercy and Phineas. Note that Mary's parents had ch. b. every two or three years until 1758, but then there was a gap in the known ch. bet 1758-1765. Mary was prob b. in that period. There is an apparent (but not a real) difficulty due to the marriage record which says Barzillai m. "Mercy"Thomas. Mary had a sis Mercy, and one might think that Mary would hardly have been called "Mercy". But, as noted above, the marriage record of Phineas shows he m. "Mary", although it turns out she was called Mercy. Since Mercy had apparently appropriated Mary's name on marriage, it is easy to see why Mary should appropriate the name Mercy. They may long since have switched names, or used the names interchangeably, or there may have been an error in transcribing the script entries in the VR. No Mercy was found who could have m. Barzillai. Mary prob m. Barzillai.

Solomon's w. was called Molly on marriage and in her death record, but a deed which she executed 6 Oct 1800 referred to her as "Polly", yet she signed it "Mary". (Jones, citing Plath Deeds, v.90,pp.111-12) She could have been Mary (D176) or the missing girl (U150). For reasons already stated, the compiler thinks that Barzillai prob m. Mary (D176), and therefore he thinks Solomon prob m. the missing girl (U150).

D178. Samuel jr. served as Pvt in the Rev War 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.136) See note D205 for Thatcher's confusion regarding Samuel (D178).

D180. The births of the ch. of Zebulon are from a family bible record published in 100 Reg 67. Zebulon was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.138)

D181. Isaac Shaw had only one eye. (J.Shaw,p.42)

D182. Seth was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,pp.125-28)

D184. Mercy Cobb m. 5 Feb 1792 Simeon Thomas (D184). (Thatcher,p.19) Jones furnished her identification.

D189. See notes D58 and D916. Descendants of Benjamin (D189) are confirmed by Jones.

D190. Perez was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775, and served again 1778 and 1780 as Pvt in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; Weston,p.117)

D191. James was a minuteman Pvt 19 Apr 1775. He served again 1777 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; 113 DAR Lin 38; Weston,p.117)

D194. Ezra was Pvt in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p,133)

D195. Zenas was Pvt in the Rev War 1779 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev)

D198. William Raymond was a minuteman Pvt 19 Apr 1775, and served again 1776 and 1778 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.117)

D201. Eleazer jr. served as Pvt 1776, 1777 and 1778, and as Corp 1780 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; Weston,pp.123, 129-23, 139)

D202. Sylvanus Raymond was a drummer minuteman 19 Apr 1775, and served later 1775, 1776, 1777 and 1778 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.123)

D203. Noah was a farmer and a moulder. (Plymp VR) He was Corp (Pvt?) in the Rev War 1775, 1776, 1777 and 1778. (Nat.Pen.S19124; Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; Weston,pp.125-28)

D204. Solomon was a minuteman Pvt 19 Apr 1775, and served each year 1776-1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,pp.117, 124, 125, 138) But see note D205. As to his w. see note D176.

D205. With Samuel's application for a Rev War pension (Nat.Pen.S10514) he filed his affidavit dated 6 Oct 1839, which said that he was b. Midd 24 Oct 1763; that he rem. to Hart 1807, then to Monson ME 1822, then to Pittsfield ME 1835. Kezia, his w., also filed an affidavit in 1839 which said Samuel went into service to take the place of his bro Solomon---see note D204. An official letter in Samuel's pension file shows he served 1775 and 1776.

Thatcher says (p.19) that Samuel and Kezia had Phebe b. 8 Feb 1788, Jedediah b. 25 Oct 1792, and Samuel b. 31 Mar 1805. Kezia in her affidavit of 1839 in the pension file says she had three ch. then living, including a dau ae 52. Phebe would then have been in her 52d yr. The family was in Hart 1807-1822, and Phebe in 1808, and Jedediah in 1815, m. there. (VR) The 1850 census of Pittsfield ME shows a Samuel ae 45 with the ch. shown herein (D1021-1025), although no wife. Samuel, b. 1805, (D531) was 45 in 1850. Furthermore, Anson H. (D1022) wrote a letter dated 31 Mar 1859 that is in the pension file which stated that he was "one of the heirs" of Samuel and Kezia, so both had d. by then.

Thatcher (p.18) says that Samuel who m. Kezia was Samuel (D178). But Samuel (D178) was b. 22 Jul 1746 (17 MD 26), 17 yr bef Kezia's h. was born. The compilers of Thatcher did not know that Samuel (D205) had m., for he is shown without a w. or ch. at p.23. This undoubtedly caused the error. For identification of Kezia see note D271.

D206. In the latter part of the 18th century there were two of the name Isaiah Thomas, one in Midd (D206) and one in Kings (D297), each of whom m. a Hannah whose last name is not shown by the VR, and each having a s. Isaiah. These Isaiahs were also called Josiah. Furthermore, some entries in the VR for these families were incomplete or missing. It is a confusing situation and a bit difficult to develop. The following may help to clarify it.

D206, D535. Midd VR show the birth of 8 ch. to Eliezer (D59), but not the birth of a s. Isaiah or, as he is called, Josiah. (Jones found his baptism, which the compiler has not seen.) However, the records of the Midd Ch. (p.115 #1077 and p.91 #350) show that Harriet (Thomas) McGlathlin (D536) was dau Isaiah and gr.dau Eliezer Thomas (D59). Thus it is shown that Eliezer did have a s. Isaiah (D206). Midd VR show the birth of Priscilla (D532) and of Charity (D533) to "Isaiah by Hannah his wife" (34 MD 159). Thus it is shown that Isaiah had a w. Hannah. Record of the marriage has not been found. The deaths of Isaiah and Hannah are thus given by Wood:

"205. ----, w. of Josiah, Nov 2, 1840."
"220. Isaiah (205), Dec 22, 1844."

This cross-reference against Isaiah to #205 is a technique Wood uses to show the spouse. Thus the record shows that Isaiah was also known as Josiah. The name is carried herein as "Isaiah (Josiah)".

A Memoir of Helen Perkins Thomas (D1761) in 100 Reg 312 states that she was descended from "David, David, William, Eleazer, Josiah who m. Hannah Shaw, Josiah who m. Hope Baylies...." Confirmation in part and correction in part is found in an item which states "Isaiah Thomas, b. 23 May 1804, m. Hope Hathaway; s. Isaiah Thomas b. ----, m. Hannah Shaw (b. 23 Oct 1773)". (Transc.22 Aug 1910, #1418) Dighton VR (bk.2,p.298) show the marriage of Isaiah Thomas (D535) to Hope Hathaway on 16 Jul 1826. Hope of this marriage is identified in Hathaway (p.288). There seems to have been an error in the Memorial about the surname of Hope. No Hope Baylies was found in records available to the compiler. Thatcher (p.48) confirms much of this.

In this Midd family we thus see that Eliezer (D59) had a s. Isaiah (also called Josiah) who m. Hannah Shaw, b. 23 Oct 1773. Hathaway (p.188) says their s. Isaiah, b. 23 May 1805, was the one who m. 16 Jul 1826 Hope Hathaway, who was b. 2 Nov 1809.

D111, D297. We now turn to the Kings family of Isaiah and Hannah Thomas. Midd VR show Isaiah (D111) was b. 13 Sep 1722 to William and Hannah Thomas. An Isaiah, described in the VR as "of Newport", m. Kezia Holmes on 3 Oct 1745 in Kings. No Isaiah could be found in the VR of Newport RI. No Isaiah was found anywhere who could have m. Kezia other than Isaiah (D111). Kezia was dau Joseph and Mary (Brewster) Holmes, b. Plmth 23 Mar 1719 (MI; Brewster,p.61; Giles Mem.,p.188). Brewster says Isaiah and Kezia "rem. to Newport".

In any event, Isaiah seems to have returned to Kings, for the births of six ch. to Isaiah and Kezia are recorded in Kings VR including an Isaiah (D297) b. 24 Jan 1753. This last Isaiah seems clearly the one who had ch. b. Kings from 1778 to 1801 by a w. Hannah. Kings VR state "Isaiah, housewright, h. Hannah" was b. "10 Jan [1751]", and that "Hannah, w. Isaiah, housewright" was b. "12 Mar 1759." These two entries obviously were made long aft the births, for at the time they were made Isaiah and Hannah had been married. They are from the private records of Rev. Z. Willis (J161). The brackets in the entry indicate that the year was doubtful. It would seem obvious that it should have been 1753, the year the VR show the birth of an Isaiah to Isaiah and Kezia in Jan.

The identity of this Hannah is indicated by two entries in Plymp VR, neither of which is found under "Thomas". Among the Holmes entries of marriages one finds: "Isaiah [sic, (Isaiah Holmes is mistaken for Isaiah Thomas of Kingston, bro of Holmes Thomas)] and Hannah Cushing, dau Col.Seth...Nov.11,1776. (Moved to Portland)." Under Cushing births is the following: "Hannah (w. Capt. Isaiah Thomas of Kingston) ch.Seth jr. and Lydia (Col.Seth and Lydia dau James Everson of Kingston)...Mar 12, 1759." The births of Isaiah's ch. for 25 yr. aft his marriage are in Kings VR, but aft his first w. d. he rem. to Portland ME and then to Gorham ME.

Kings VR show that Isaiah had a s. Isaiah bp. 18 Oct 1789 (D657), whose death is recorded thus: "Josiah, s. Josiah, d. 23 Feb 1792, ae 2." Again we see the confusion between Isaiah and Josiah. "Isaiah housewright and Hannah" later had another Isaiah, b. Kings 6 Oct 1795 (D660). They also had a Kezia, a Spencer and a Micah, which were names of ch. of Isaiah (D111) and Kezia. Clearly Isaiah, h. Hannah. was s. Isaiah (D111).

In this Kings family we see that Isaiah, b. 13 Sep 1722, m. 3 Oct 1745 Kezia Holmes and had Isaiah, b. 24 Jan 1753, who m. 11 Nov 1776 Hannah Cushing, b. 12 Mar 1759. Isaiah and Hannah had a s. Isaiah (also called Josiah) who d. 1792; but then they had another s. Isaiah b. 6 Oct 1795.

D219. Barzillai 2d was a Pvt in the Rev War 1778. (Mass SS Rev) As to Mercy (Mary) see note D176.

D222. See note D176.

D223. See note D553.

D225. Asa Hackett m. 18 Sep 1796 Kezia Thomas (Thatcher #186; Transc. 4 Feb 1931,#2429). No Kezia was found who could have m. Asa except Kezia (D225). See notes D271 and D296. The only information on the parentage of Asa that was found was contained in two notes in the Transcript. "Tradition and family names point to Samuel Hackett who m. Mary Randall as the father of Asa Hackett of Rochester who m.....Kezia Thomas. Samuel was s. Ebenezer and Abigail (Thomas) Hackett." Ebenezer m. (1) 23 Aug 1757 Abigail Thomas (D70); and (2) 2 Jan 1764 Elizabeth Canedy. (Transc. 4 Feb 1931, #2429) See Abigail D70. Roch VR show "Samuel Hackett of Midd m. Mary Randall 10 Jun 1771 in Wareham."

A later note (Transc. 19 Jul 1933 #2429) says: "A family bible gives records which indicate that Asa was s. Ebenezer and Elizabeth Hackett"rather than of Samuel and Mary, and adds that Ebenezer d. 1802 and Elizabeth d. 1794. The bible records are followed herein.

See Abia (D556).

D242. This family is from the 1850 census of Lunenburg VT.

D243. George was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775. He served later in 1775 and in 1777 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.119) He became a Corp (DAR-PI) and again a Sgt (Rolls,p.285).
He was a farmer in Wstk, famous for his apple orchards. (Dana,p.64)

D247. Robert was a Pvt in the Rev War 1777 and 1778. (Mass SS Rev)

D249. Ransom was a Pvt in the Rev War 1780. (Mass SS Rev) Gideon Southworth prob marched on the alarm of 19 Apr 1775. (Southworth, p.96)

D252. The VR make clear that Abraham m. Nancy Dunham, and Wood shows (his #304) that Nancy, wid. Abraham Thomas, d. Midd 4 Jun 1863. Hathaway (p.288) seems to be mistaken in saying that Davis (D602) was s. Abraham and Mary. Thatcher (p.32) confirms that Abraham and Nancy were the parents of Davis.

D255. See note D172.

D258. Willard served as Pvt in the Rev War 1776, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, pp.125-28)

D261. Both editions of Shurtleff, v.1, (p.51, p.187---1976 ed.; and corresponding material of 1912 ed.) show that William Shurtleff, b. 1723, m. Plymp 29 Nov 1781 "Molly Thomas, a widow"; and that William, s. of the preceding, b. 1756, m. Mansfield 2 Feb 1777 "Mehitable Thomas of Middleboro".
However, Plymp VR show "Molly Thomas" (no mention of "wid.") m. 29 Nov 1781 "William Shurtleff jr." William, b. 1756, was s. William and hence was "jr.", while William, b. 1723, was s. Thomas and not a junior. "Molly" was a familiar name for Mary. Jones found a conveyance by members of the family of Lemuel (D87) dated 12 Aug 1778 selling land which had belonged to "our honored father Lemuel Thomas, Deceased". (Plmth Deeds, bk.72,p.167) It names among other grantors "Mary Thomas" (D261). But although dated in 1778 it was not acknowledged until 22 Feb 1782, when "Mary Thomas, now by the name of Mary Shurtleff" acknowledged it. As noted above, Plymp VR state that in 1781 "Molly Thomas" had m. "William Shurtleff jr." Mary, dau Lemuel, was b. 10 May 1760 and William Shurtleff jr. was b. 2 Nov 1756. It seems clear that William Shurtleff jr. m. 1781 Mary Thomas (D261).
Mansfield VR show "Mrs. Mehitable Thomas of Middleboro" m. 2 Feb 1777 "William Shurtleff of Mansfield". "Mrs." implies that Mehitable was a wid., and she must have been for there was no Mehitable Thomas in Midd. who had not married and who could have m. 1777; and the only wid. Mehitable who could have m. then was Mehitable, wid. Lemuel (D87). Lemuel had d. 26 Jan 1776. The senior William was b. 1723 and Mehitable, wid. Lemuel, was b. 1726. It seems that she m. (2) 1777 the senior William Shurtleff as his third wife. Shurtleff is right in saying that he m. a wid. named Thomas, but it was Mehitable, not Molly. The Shurtleff version would have William, b. 1756, m. Mehitable, b. 1736, 20 years his senior. Note that father and son m. mother and daughter.
William Shurtleff jr. (D261) was a soldier in the Rev War. (Otisfield ME VR)

D263. Lemuel was a Pvt in the Rev War 1779 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev)

D269. Nelson was a Pvt in the Rev War 1777, 1778 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev)

D270. Churchill was a Pvt in the Rev War 1778, 1780 and 1781. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, p.133)

D271. See note D205. The pension application of Samuel (D205) (Nat.Pen.S10514) contains an affidavit of Samuel's w. Kezia which says she lived in Midd one mile from Samuel, and that "Samuel is 1 yr 3 mo older than I." Samuel was b. 24 Oct 1763, so Kezia was b.c.Jan-Feb 1765. Kezia (D271) was b. Midd 11 Feb 1765. Thatcher says (p.18) "Kezia Thomas 2d" m. 13 Sep 1787 Samuel Thomas. As Kezia (D95) was still living, her dau Kezia (D271) would be "Kezia 2d". No other Kezia is found who was b. 1765. For other Kezias see Note D225 and note D296.

D280. The first two ch. of Jedediah (D280) and their descendants are from MI. The rest of his descendants are from a memorandum of genealogical information obtained from John Wallace Thomas (D1802), furnished the compiler by Stead.

289. Peleg was a Pvt in the Rev War 1780 and 1781. (Mass SS Rev; Nat.Pen.W18135)

294. Lydia, being called "Mrs." on her marriage to Micah, presumably had been m. before. Her last marriage is from Kings and Plymp VR.

D296. Plmth VR (26 MD 139) and Kings VR both show that "Joseph Bramhall of Plmth m. (int) 30 Apr 1768 Mrs. Kezia Thomas of Kings." Only two of the name Kezia Thomas are found in Kings: the w. of Isaiah (D111) and their dau (D296).

"Kezia Thomas, wid.,d. June 22, 1787, ae 66." (Kings VR) This must have been the wid. of Isaiah who was in her sixties in 1787, not their dau who was then 36. The entry is under "Thomas"; it is not found under"Bramhall". Isaiah's wid. clearly did not m. Joseph Bramhall. The 1768 intention of marriage must have referred to the dau Kezia (D296), b. Kings 23 Jun 1751.

There were three of the name Joseph Bramhall in Plmth: (1) Joseph, b. 20 Dec 1717 (5 MD 100) who m. Sarah Tillson (16 MD 254); (2) Joseph, b. 30 Jan 1742/3 (2 MD 226); and (3) Joseph, b. 4 Jan 1750/1, s. of the first Joseph and Sarah (15 MD 44).

The first Joseph d. Jamaica W.I. 1751 (Bramhall, p.6). The "wid. Sarah Bramhall and her ch. Edmund and Joseph" were bp. 23 Nov 1753 (Plmth Ch., p.448). The first Joseph certainly did not marry Kezia Thomas in 1768.

The third Joseph, b. 1751, s. of the first Joseph, seems clearly to have been "Joseph jr." who m. (1) (int) Plmth 27 Nov 1773 Experience Blackmer; and (2) (int) Plmth 13 Aug 1808 Lydia Sherman (27 MD 175; 32 MD 22; Bramhall,p.7).

This would mean that the Joseph who "m. (int) 30 Apr 1768 Mrs. Kezia Thomas" was the second Joseph, b. 1742/3, and Davis (p.40) and Bramhall (p.6) say he did m. her. /For the use of "Mrs." for an unmarried lady see "Titles" in the Notes of General Application./ But we find that "Mrs. Kezia Thomas /int. Jr./ m. Kings 27 Sep 1770 Nathaniel Cook", b. Kings 11 Apr 1747, d. Kings 31 May 1772 (VR); that she m. (2) Job Cushman, b. Plymp 15 Aug 1753, d. Campo Bello, N.B., 8 Jan 1826 (Cushman, p.109); and that "Kezia Cushman, w. Job, d. Plymp 13 Dec 1777 in 28th yr." (Plymp VR)

Also we find that Joseph Bramhall m. Plmth 28 Nov 1771 Remember Robbins (Plmth Ch., p.496), and they were having ch.bp. there as late as 1787 (Plmth Ch., pp.464-467). This could not have been the third Joseph who m. Experience Blackmer in 1773. It must have been the second Joseph.

Since Kezia m. (1) Nathaniel Cook in 1771, and aft 1772 m. (2) Job Cushman; and since the first Joseph d. 1751, the second Joseph m. Remember Robbins in 1771, and the third Joseph m. Experience Blackmer in 1773, it is clear that the intended marriage of 1768 of Kezia and Joseph did not take place.

For the Kezia Thomases of Midd see notes D225 and D271.

D297. See note D206. Isaiah was a Pvt minuteman 19 Apr 1775, and was Sgt 1776 and Sgt Maj at Halifax 1777 and 1781 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Cushing,p.87)

D298. Holmes was a Pvt in the Rev War 1775, 1776 and 1777. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI) See Biog Sket.,pp.99-100.

D299. Spencer was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776. (Mass SS Rev)

D316. The parentage, birth and death of Israel (D316) are from Jones.
It should be noted that Carver VR state, under Deaths, that "Mary, dau Israel and Kezia, w. Brad Thomas, d. 7 May 1823, ae 32. G.R.4" This prob was a garbled version of the d. of Mary (Murdock) Thomas, w. Israel, who did d. that date, ae 32. She may have m. (1) Brad Thomas, (2) ---- Murdock, and (3) Israel Thomas. Jones suggests it may have been the record of the birth of a dau Mary to Israel and Kezia, who later m. Brad Thomas and d. 1855, ae 32.

D325. Abiel was a blacksmith. (Hilditch) His ch. Abiel, George, Rebecca and Hannah are from the 1850 census of Wareham.

D328. In an interview with Nathaniel (D920) which appeared in the Canton ME Telephone of 18 Jun 1885, Nathaniel gave the following information about the Thomas "Early Settlers of Hartford Maine". (Stead)

Nathaniel (D463) and William (D467) came to Hart. (See Thatcher,p.24)
Polly (D331) came to Hart bef she m. Moses Sampson in 1807.
Elisha (D328) m. Betsey Washburn.
Daniel (D333) m. Sally Bradman of Hebron ME.

The last three were two brothers and their sister. They prob came together bet 1800-1806. Elisha is in the 1810 census of Hart but not in the 1800 census. His family in 1810 consisted of a girl 16-26 (his w. Betsey), a boy and a girl both under 10 (his ch.), and a man 16-26, undoubtedly his bro Daniel who was then 20 and who does not appear elsewhere in the census.
See note D414 for more on Elisha (D328).

D331. See note D328.

D333. See note D328.

D336. William served on the Board of Selectmen of Oxford ME. He was Trustee of the Oxford County Agricultural Society. (Biog Rev., p.294)

D340. Edward was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776, 1778 and 1780. (Nat.Pen.30159; Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.137)

D341. An "Enoch TOMOS" of Midd seems to have been a different person from "Enoch Thomas" also of Midd. Both are recorded in Mass SS Rev as having served in the Rev War, the former in 1778 and 1779, and the latter in 1776, 1777, 1778 and 1780. DAR App. 449359 identified the Enoch who served 1780 as Enoch (D78). Under the circumstances Enoch (D341) would seem to be the other man who served only in 1778 and 1779, and this conclusion was also reached by Jones.

D342. Robert Cushman was Pvt in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Weston, p.123)

D343. Cushman (p.130), relying on the Barker Genealogy (p.30), says Hannah Cushman m. 15 Sep 1794 Lawton Barker, b. Middletown NY 5 Apr 1772, d. Homer NY 28 Sep 1860, and that Hannah d. Homer NY 8 May 1857. This seems to be clearly wrong. Hannah m. 18 Jun 1795 Hushai (D343) and had ch. by him b. Midd 1796-1800, and others b. Winthrop ME 1803-1815. (Midd VR in 34 MD 127; Thatcher,p.15) She d. Winthrop ME 3 Feb 1838. History of Winthrop ME, Jones, H.Thomas, Heinz and Thatcher all agree that she m. Hushai Thomas (D343).

"Capt. Hushai Thomas, b. Midd 27 Mar 1766, first came to Brunswick ME where 7 Sep 1790 he was commissioned Capt. Inf....He returned to Midd and was chosen Capt. of a Plmth Company of Cavalry 16 Jun 1794. He rem. to Winthrop ME in 1801, engaged in lumbering and buying and selling real estate." (History of Winthrop ME, cited by Jones)

D344. Daniel was a merchant of Taunt. (Col.Cen.)

D351. Hanson VR say the Elizabeth Thomas who d. 12 Oct 1843 was ae 74 yr, 6 mo, 7 dy. This is obviously an error in recording the years of her age at death. Elizabeth (D351) was b. 5 Apr 1764. Her age on 12 Oct 1843 would have been 79 yr, 6 mo, 7 dy. There was no other Elizabeth at all near the right age. This mistake was prob due to transcribing "9" as "4".

D356. Information on descendants of Zadock (D356) was furnished by E. Thomas (D1823).

D361. See note W156.

D370. An Enoch Thomas, 66, b. MA, is in the 1850 census of Stowe VT. In all probability this was Enoch (D370) b. 1785. His mother, Mary Jakok, wid. Daniel (D157), undoubtedly took him to Wstk when she m. David (D167) in 1796 and rem. there.

D381. See note D463.

D384. Rev. Jasper Hazen was a minister of the Christian Church of Wstk for 30 yr. He was a Member of the Legislature 1823-4. (Virkus, v.6,p.399)

D389. See note D176.

D397. A Nathan Thomas "of Midd" served as Pvt 1780 and 1781 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,p.138) This could have been Nathan (D397) although he was only 15 or 16 at the time, which perhaps renders this uncertain. See note D145 and note D151.

D398. Thatcher (p.23, #32) gives the information regarding the marriage of Drusilla to an Eliphalet Thomas (see his #130); Wood (his #131) gives the death of Eliphalet; and MI #34441 and Heinz (p.24) give her marriage to Elisha Nye. This seems to have been a second marriage of Elisha of Sandwich, who had m. Plmth 17 Apr 1779 Sarah Morrey (28 MD 35), for no other Elisha Nye was found in southeastern MA. Eliphalet was a minuteman Pvt 19 Apr 1775, and also served 1776, 1777, and 1778 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Weston,pp.119,125) The parents of Eliphalet have not been identified. See U45.

D414. Entries in Wood (#69, #62 and #340) indicate that the Elisha Thomas who d. Midd 30 Jan 1814 was s. Joseph (D172) and Deborah Thomas, and that his wid. was Betsey (Cushman) Thomas who d. 16 Feb 1875.

Thatcher, however, shows (pp.6,9) that Elisha (D328), b. 5 Jan 1780, s. Elisha (D135) and Rachel, m. 1 Nov 1801 Betsey Cushman. Cushman (pp.188-9) follows Thatcher. Thatcher also shows (p.23) that Elisha (D414), s. Joseph and Deborah, m. 29 Jul 1798 Elizabeth Morton. There is no reason to question the ch. of either Elisha as given by Thatcher. The problem is to identify correctly the Elisha who m. Elizabeth Morton and the Elisha who m. Elizabeth Cushman.

David Cushman, bro of Elizabeth, m. Elizabeth Thomas (D327), sis Elisha (D328). Thatcher prob thought that bro and sis had m. sis and bro, as frequently happened, and therefore decided that Elisha (D328) had m. Betsey Cushman. But Wood says (his #69) that Elisha Thomas, h. Betsey, d. 30 Jan 1814 "in 36th yr", as shown by his grave at the Green in Midd. Elisha (D328) was b. 5 Jan 1780 and would have just reached 34 on that date, but Elisha(D414) was b. 17 Feb 1777 and would have been 36 yr old as the grave says. This sheds considerable doubt on the position taken by Thatcher and Cushman.

Looking further we find that Wood states specifically that the h. of Betsey Cushman was "s. Joseph and Deborah", and cites the records of Rev. Alfred Wood as his authority. Rev Alfred Wood, b. Midd 1777, d. Midd 1864, was a contemporary of Betsey and of her husband, regardless of which Elisha she married. Rev. Alfred was a pastor in Midd, and his record of Elisha, h. Betsey, was undoubtedly based on personal knowledge, since Elisha (D135) lived in Midd until aft 1800 (census), both the other Elishas grew up in Midd, both Betsey Cushman and Lizzie Morton m. their Elishas in Midd, and the Elisha who m. Betsey res. Midd with his w. until his death in 1814. Wood was right in following Rev. Alfred Wood and saying Betsey's h. was "s. Joseph and Deborah", and that Elisha who d. Midd 1814 "in 36th yr" was Elisha (D414), b. Midd 1777.

This conclusion is supported also by the fact that Betsey's h. was called "Elisha 2d" (Townsend, citing an early Cushman Genealogy). As Elisha (D135), b.1747, was still living in Midd until aft 1800, Elisha (D414), b.1777, would have been Elisha 2d, and Elisha (D328), b. 1780, would have been Elisha 3d or, since he was s. Elisha (D135), Elisha jr., but not Elisha 2d.

The question of the h. of Elizabeth Morton remains. She was b. Midd 1765 (26 MD 79). It would seem apparent from their ages that she m. Midd 29 Jul 1798 Elisha (D135) b. 1747, not his s. Elisha (D328) b.1780. Elisha (D135) rem. to Oxford ME prob c. 1802-06, where he d. 1829 and where his wid. Elizabeth d. 1839. (Jones, citing Annals of Oxford ME, p.277) Elisha (D328) rem. to Hart with his bro Daniel and sis Polly, and there he m. 1806 Betsey Washburn. See note D328.

Finally it might be noted that the census records support all of this. The family of Elisha (D135) gained a female ae 25-45 in 1800 who was not in his family in 1790--he had m. Elizabeth Morton in 1798, who was b. 1765. Elisha (D328) was not in his father's family in the Midd census in 1800---he had left home and soon was in ME; he did not m. Betsey Cushman in 1801 in Midd. Elisha (D414) was still in his father's family in Midd in 1800 and no new female was living with him--he had not m. Lizzie Morton in 1798. He was the only Elisha who could have m. Betsey Cushman in 1801.

D419. Eliphalet's second w. Abigail and his dau Lucinda are from the 1850 Wstk census.

D420. Midd VR (34 MD 158) show the birth of Lavina. The marriage is from Jones, Stead and Thatcher (his #296).

D422. Lemuel built a woolen mill and a saw-mill in Stowe VT (Stillwell; Vermont,v.2, p.474). Vermont shows Lemuel m. Rhoda Mendall and had Jones, Weston, Rhoda who m. Jerome Slayton, and Henry. It also shows that Lemuel m. (2) Betsey Butler and had Abijah who m. and had 5 ch. The 1850 census of Stowe VT shows Lemuel then had a w. Betsey 55, and with them were Abiger T. 28, Clarissa 26, Rhoda M. Slayton 20 with two young Slayton ch. and an Orlando Slayton 22. This suggests that Rhoda m. Orlando, not Jerome Slayton, but Jerome may have d. Also, if Abiger (b.1822) was s. Betsey (as Vermont says), Rhoda M. (b.1830) must have been dau of Betsey, not of Rhoda. Clarissa is treated as w. Abiger, but she may have been dau Lemuel.

D435. This family is from the 1850 census of Montgomery VT. The census also showed in this family an Edward G. 9, who was prob gr.ch. of Nebulon (D435).

D441. This family is from the 1850 census of Waterbury VT.
D446. See note J425.
D459. See note D916.

D463. See note D328. Descendants of Nathaniel and Sarah are from Stead and Jones. Thatcher (p.43,#15) shows that Sally (D381) was the girl who m. Nathaniel. However, the tombstone of Nathaniel's w. Sarah in N.Hart says she was "ae 86 yr, 4 mo" when she d. 8 Apr 1867. (Stead) Sarah (D416) was b. 8 Dec 1781 while Sally (D381) was b. 23 Sep 1785. Jones and Stead say that Nathaniel m. Sally (D416). This seems right and is followed herein.

D464. Descendants of Perez are from Jones.

D466. Descendants of Benjamin are from Jones. See note D916.

D467. See note D328. This family is from Jones.

D468. Wood shows (his Lucas #4 and 5) that Deborah, second w. of Alden Lucas, was dau Dea. Perez Thomas, and that his first w. was Deborah Barnes.

D493. Winslow (p.263) shows the birth of Ebenezer in 1761 to John and Dorcas Winslow in Roch, but the line is not carried further. It also shows (p.162) that John and Bethia (Sherman) Winslow, who m. 3 Aug 1745, had ch. b. Roch 1747-68 and, "according to some members of the family", had a later Ebenezer. Either of these Ebenezers could have been the one who m. Susannah (D493). They are the only Ebenezers of Roch of the right age who are shown in Winslow.

D531. This family is from the 1850 census of Pittsfield ME. See note D905.

D535. See note D206.

D547. Thatcher shows (p.40) "Henry, s. ----, b. ----, d. ----, mar. Zilpha" and had Zilpha Thompson (D547) and Ezra T. (D548); but no support has been found for a Henry other than Henry (D222), or for a Zilpha who was w. Henry. Thatcher (pp.39 and 41) shows the family of Henry (D222) and his w. Mary (Molly), but does not include these two ch. Henry's dau Zilpha (D541) d. 1798 and it would have been natural for him to name his next dau Zilpha when she was b. 1800. Those two ch. are accordingly given to Henry (D222) and his w. Mary (Molly).

Zilpha (D547) is named as his dau "Zilpha Thomas" in the will of Henry (D222) dated May 1842. (Jones, citing Plath Probate v. 84, p.355) This proves she was not dau of another Henry.

It also proves that she had not married by 1842. But a Zilpha Thomas m. 28 Aug 1825 Oliver Gibbs. (Thatcher, p.58) This was prob Zilpha (D550), dau Moses. No other Zilpha was found.

D548. See note D547.

D550. See note D547.

D551. The ancestral line of Horatio Nelson to Ruth Nelson (D17) and on to John Howland and his w. Elizabeth Tilley, both of the Mayflower, is shown in MI---see MI #73259 and antecedent numbers. The ancestry of his w. Caroline Barrows traces through her mother Ruth Tinkham, and through Ruth's father Isaac Tinkham, to Ebenezer Tinkham who is MI #34962. (For details see Teel-Thomas,p.64, #13, #27; p.65, #54; and p.84, #108) The ancestry of Ebenezer Tinkham traces to Peter Brown of the Mayflower.

Caroline's mother Ruth Tinkham was dau Lucretia (Hammond) Tinkham whose ancestry traces through Seth Hammond jr. and Seth sr. to Mary (Hathaway) Hammond who is MI #17044. (Teel-Thomas, p.64 #27; p.65, #55; p.85, #110, #220 and #441) MI carries the ancestry to Francis Cooke and his w. Sarah Warren, dau of Richard Warren, all three of the Mayflower.

Finally the ancestry of Caroline Barrows traces through her father Josiah Barrows, Hannah (Jones) Barrows, Josiah Jones and Matthew Jones to Mary (Fuller) Jones who is MI #52939. (Teel-Thomas, p.64 #26; p.65, #53; and p.83, #106, #212 and #425) However, as is apparent from Teel-Thomas notes #53 on p.102 and #106 on p.106, this last ancestral line does not have the best of proof. Mary (Fuller) Jones was gr.dau Edward Fuller of the Mayflower. (Shaw,p.91)

Information on descendants of Horatio Nelson (D551) was largely from P.Thomas and from living members of the family. For descendants of Horatio Nelson in all lines see Teel-Thomas pp.155-59 and C & A p.20.

D553. "C.A.Thomas" was in the 1840 census of Pittsfield VT with a family of 1 male 20-30 (himself), 1 female 20-30 (his w.), and another male and female each 60-70 (his father and mother, Moses (D223) and his w. Hannah). Moses was in Midd in 1830 (census) but not in 1840. In 1850 "Charles Austin Thomas" was in the census of Pittsfield VT with the family herein given him, including also Moses and Hannah.

D558. This family is from the 1850 census of Lunenburg VT.

D559. This family is from the 1850 census of Lunenburg VT. Jonathan (D229) was living with them.

D563. "James M. Thomas 50, b. Massachusetts" is in the 1850 census of Lunenburg VT. He had living with his family a Hannah Thomas 70, also b. MA. The circumstances of the exact name (James M.), the age (James M. was b. 17 Jan 1801), and the presence of Hannah 70 (the mother of James M. was Hannah (D473), b. 23 Oct 1778) convinced the compiler that he should include this family in the tables.

D571. This information is from Raymond, v.2,pp.56 and 136.

D578. The will of Susanna (D579), sis of Ichabod, refers to six ch. of Ichabod. (Jones) The names of the last two are from the 1850 census of Midd, the first two from Thatcher, (p.32).

D580. The name and d. of the wife of Amos are based on the following: Amos m. 4 Jul1811 "Patty Elliot". (Taunt VR) "Martha", w. Amos, d. 11 Sep 1848 ae 55y (Thatcher, p.33; Jones). Lydia's parentage and marriage and the marriage of Zilpha are from the probate papers of Amos (Plmth Probate, bk.102,p.70). A Patty Thomas d. Midd 15 Mar 1734 (Wood his #193). Jones thinks she was an unm. dau of Amos, but as no other record of her was found she is omitted from the tables. See U159.

In the early 1800s Amos had a confectionery store. Later his s. Ira (D1072) ran it as general manager, and later still it was run by Ira Martin (D1516). (Weston,p.291)

D598. This family is from Shurtleff, v.1,p.231.

D602. See note D252.

D606. MA VR Statistics v.383, p.364, shows that Eveline, dau Abraham and Nancy Thomas of Midd, m. a Sears and was the wid. who d. 19 May 1887, ae 75 yr, 3 mo, 7 dy. (Jones) This settles which Eveline m. Ivory H. Sears---see Eveline (D750).

D613. Sylvanus, then a farmer of Halifax, enlisted 16 Sep 1861 at age 44 as Pvt in the Civ War, but was discharged for disability 11 Apr 1862 at Newport News VA. (Mass SSM Civ, v.3,p.294) His ch. are from Southworth,p.136.

D658. Seth who m. Ruth Damon is described in Scit VR as "of Boston". No Seth was found in available Boston records; but Seth, b. Kings 1791 (D658), was the right age and from the right area to have m. Ruth in Scit 1819. He may have been in Boston for a while. No other Seth was found who could have m. at Scit at that period. Finally, note that Seth and Ruth named a dau Hannah Cushing (D1170). Hannah Cushing was the mother of Seth (D658). It seems clear that he was the Seth who m. Ruth Damon.

D669. The death, marriage and descendants of William (D669) are from the late Ruth Easterbrook Thomas (D1811). The Annals of Oxford ME say William m. Harriet Brackett; but the William who m. Harriet was William (D336). This is shown by the biography of their s. William Newell Thomas (D737). (Biog, Rev., p.294)

D673. A biographical sketch of George (D673) can be found in Biog. Sket., p.100. James Blankenburg was a native of N.B. He was a soldier in the War of 1812, and never returned. (Jones)

D687. This family is from Jones.

D690. Adoniram was a Pvt in the Civ War. He d. 29 Sep 1862 of wounds received in the Battle of Bull Run 30 Aug 1862. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.368; Weston,p.181)

D692. The ch. of Elias are from the 1850 census of Plmth.

D705. Henry served in the band of the 28th Mass. Inf. in the Civ War. (Nat.Pen.#558589)

D708. Harrison Otis served in the Civ War and was wounded in the arm in battle. (Nat.Pen. #819398; Mass SSM Civ, v.1,p.164; v.2,p.373; Weston, p.182)

D718. This family is from the 1850 census of Hart.

D724. The ch. of Oliver are from the 1850 census of Wareham.

D731. Augustus is from the Hart 1850 census. He was living with Daniel and Sally (D333).

D737. William was a member of the Board of Selectmen of Oxford ME, a Trustee of the Oxford County Agricultural Society, and was Master of the South Paris Grange. (Biog. Rev., p.294)

D750. See note D606.

D756. This family is from the 1850 census of Winthrop ME.

D762. Descendants of Daniel Vaughan (D762) are from McGovern (see bibliography).

D764. No record of div. of Lewis and Laura has been found. Brigham (v,2.p.109) gives 1824 as the date of death of Lewis; but the tombstone of Lewis in Medina OH shows he d. 17 Sep 1836, and this date is confirmed by a family bible of his bro Daniel Vaughan (D762). (H.Thomas) The date of the second marriage of Laura is from Brigham (v.1, p.278), which also shows ch.b. to Lenman McClintock and Laura 23 Jan 1826, 2 Apr 1829, and 11 May 1833, and these are accepted as ch. of Laura's second marriage in the text of the second volume of Brigham (v.2,p.109). Apparently there was a div., or a separation treated as such.

The information on Lewis and his descendants is largely from H.Thomas and from B. Thomas (see bibliography).

D786. Priscilla H., "dau Sylvanus Thomas", m. Boston 9 Dec 1833 Earl Shaw (Col.Cen.).

D806. Benjamin was a shoe maker (Pemb VR). His w. Lydia was a school teacher. (Kings VR)

D808. Edward ae 47 and Ruth ae 39 were in Abing in the 1850 census.

D823. Information on descendants of Lewis Leonard was, to a large extent, furnished by Hilditch (see bibliography).

D824. "Mrs. Anna Bell of Halifax, ae 32, dau Nelson and Anna Thomas" m. Lewis White of Abing. (Halifax VR) "Anna Pratt, wid. of Joshua Pratt. ...dau Nelson and Anna Thomas of Pemb" d. Hanson 15 Nov 1899. (MA VR)

D826. Nelson's last three ch. are from the 1860 census of Hanson.

D827. Ebenezer's ch. Abigail and Richard are from the 1850 Halifax census.

D828. The last four ch. of Charles are from the 1860 Hanson census.

D832. William O. was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.4, p.88)

D836. This item is from Winslow, , v.1,p.480.

D847. William was prominent in the lumber business. (Hilditch, citing History of Plmth, Norfolk and Barns Counties, v.3,p.174)

D852. Nathan was a doctor of Stowe VT. (Dana,p.72) The family is from the 1850 census of Stowe VT.

D867. Bartlett's ch. Clarinda, William B., and Nancy are from the 1850 Midd census.

D872. Elisha is from the 1850 Midd census.

D898. Lucius served in Co.F, 3d VT Volunteers. (Stillwell)

D916. Thatcher (p.24) shows the father of Benjamin Franklin (D916) was Benjamin (D466), s. Perez (D190). It would seem that this is wrong, and that the father of Benjamin Franklin was a Benjamin, s. Benjamin (D189). While no record of the birth of a s. Benjamin to Benjamin (D189) was found, "Benjamin, s. Benjamin, d. 1 Jun 1874, ae 86 yr, 8 mo, 10 dy." (Wood, his #342). See also Thatcher, his #127, where these two Benjamins are carried as unidentified, although at p.21 it shows the birth of Benjamin (D189). The Benjamin who d. 1874 must have been the s. of Benjamin (D189), for there was no other Benjamin who could have been his father. Thus we have Benjamin (D459), b. 21 Sep 1787, s. Benjamin (D189).

Benjamin (D466), s. Perez, was b. Midd 25 Dec 1785 (34 MD 156). Either he or Benjamin (D459) m. 22 Sep 1813 Huldah Hackett (Midd Ch; Thatcher,p.24), and they were the parents of Benjamin Franklin (D916). (Thatcher,p.24; Wood, his #313) Benjamin (D189), Benjamin (D459) and Benjamin Franklin (D916) all apparently lived in Midd, where they were b. and d. and had their ch. born. All their births and deaths are from Midd VR, Wood or Thatcher (pp.21, 27 and 29-30), all of which deal with Midd people. Benjamin (D466), on the other hand, rem. to Hart where he married, raised his family, and died. (Jones) Note that he named his eldest s. Perez for his father, Dea. Perez (D190). Note also that his brothers Nathaniel (D463) and William (D467) rem. to Hart.

Thatcher (p.21), while giving Benjamin (D189) his two wives, gave him no ch. It therefore assigned Huldah Hackett as the w. of Benjamin (D466), being the only Benjamin it showed. Jones, however, researched this family carefully and gives Huldah as w. Benjamin (D459). This seems obviously right and is followed herein. Note that Huldah lived and died in Midd., not Hart.

D921. Deborah and Isaac were the parents of George F. Robinson, about whom there is this interesting story. "George F. served in the [Civ War] and was detailed as nurse on account of his own ill health...At the time of the assasination of President Lincoln it will be remembered, there was a conspiracy to over-throw the government by taking the lives of several of the cabinet officers at the same time. Secretary of State Seward was sick at this time and George F. Robinson was nursing him. The would-be murderer entered the room, approached the bed and with a dirk dealt a blow at the sick man. George F. sprang upon him and in the struggle was stabbed in the face and back. The ruffian escaped without accomplishing his purpose." ("Early Settlers of Hartford" in Canton ME Telephone of 18 Jun 1885---curtesy of Stead and Jones) In 1915 a mountain in Alaska was named Mount Sergeant Robinson for the man who saved the life of Seward, who later secured the purchase of Alaska by the United States. (Congressional Record)

D931. The dates of births of the last three ch. of Benjamin are from the 1850 census of Hart.

D932. The ch. of William are from the 1850 census of Hart.

D937. Winslow (D469) and Charity had George Shaw, b. 14 Oct 1815 (Thatcher,p.24,#32; p.27,#33). We get the descendants of George Shaw from a pension file.

George B. (D1397), res. Plmth, enlisted in the Civ War 7 Dec 1861, ae 23 (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.368); and the wid. of George B., Eliza (Zwicker) (Brewster) Thomas of Kings, in her pension application says George B. was b. Wareham, was 44 on 22 Mar 1882, and was s. George S. of Midd and his w. Prudence Wrightington (Nat.Pen.#228828). The pension application also says George B. had m. (1) Adaline S. ----, while Eliza had m. (1) Henry Brewster, giving some details.

However, the picture is confused by other entries with different middle initials. George L. is said to have m. Prudence and had George B., b. 1838; and George B., s. George L., b. 1838, m. 25 Jun 1859 Adeline Dunnethin (Thatcher, his unidentified #84 and #85). George B. of Midd m. Taunt 1 Jan 1837 Prudence L. Ridington of Taunt (Taunt VR). George B. and Prudence (Redington) Thomas had Linus Bradford b. 25 Dec 1842 (Thatcher, his unidentified #115 and #116). Finally the 1850 census of Plmth shows George W. 34, Prudence L. 35, George B. 12, Marian A. 10, Linus B. 8, Sarah 5, and Henrietta 1 living as a family.

George S. was Pvt from Kings in the Civ War, ae 44 on enlistment 7 Dec 1861. (Mass SSM Civ, v.1,p.241)

D938. See note D1342. Winslow's ch. Ellen and Emma are from the 1850 Plmth census.

D947. Seneca was a Capt. in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ,v.1,p.237; Weston, p.175)

D958. Stephen was a Capt. in the Civ War, promoted to Maj.Aug 1862 and to Lt.Col.Dec 1862. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.373; Weston,p.180) His ch. Zilpha, Stephen and James are from the 1850 Midd census.

D981. The record of the ch. of John Atwood and his second w. Mary Elizabeth calls them "quadroons". (Jones)

D1005. George W. was Pvt in the Civ War, enlisted from Plmth 18 Aug 1862 ae 19. He was discharged for disability 26 May 1863 at New Orleans LA. (Mass SSM Civ, v.4,p.32)

D1006. John H. was Pvt in the Civ War. He d. 17 Feb 1865 in Baltimore MD of wounds received in the Battle of Hatcher's Run VA. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.368; v.3,p.519; Wood his #309).

D1026. John Lee was a moulder. (Taunt VR)

D1037. Josiah Barrows, in his early teens, learned the moulder's trade at a Taunt foundry, but soon gave it up and started a butcher's cart in Midd. "On the first trip with the cart, he knew so little about the business that he made no difference in the price of meat.../This/ proved a good advertisement for him." He moved to Wareham where he continued this business until 1861. Then he bought a wholesale meat business in Peabody and moved there. He formed branches in various communities in Essex Co., and was the leading wholesale dealer of meat in that area. After some years he began to buy his beef from Swift & Co. instead of slaughtering it himself, getting six carloads of beef each week from Swift; but he continued to slaughter lambs (18,000 annually) and calves (20 to 125 per week). The Swifts were boyhood friends of his. According to the family, he had loaned the Swifts a sizeable sum when they were starting their business; so he may have been able to obtain a very profitable arrangement for their slaughtered cattle. Indeed, the family says he got his meat from them practically at cost. (Grace Carroll Thomas--D1507) His business interests were extended to manufacturing wool, morocco, shoes, etc. He also had large real estate holdings in the County. When he died he left the Town of Peabody $50,000 to erect a hospital, which now bears his name. (Peabody,pp.381-84) For his descendants in all lines see Teel-Thomas,pp.155-56 and C & A,pp.13-15.

D1039. For descendants of George Shaw in all lines see Teel-Thomas, pp.156-57.

D1040. The ancestry of Olive Prentice Howes traces through her father, Prentice Howes, Benjamin Howes, Betsey (Howes) Howes, Josiah Howes and Mary (Howes) Howes to Lydia (Joyce) Howes, who is MI #20216, thence to John Howland and his wife Elizabeth Tilley, both of the Mayflower. (For details see Teel-Thomas,p.64, #7, #14, #28; p.65, #57; p.87, #114, #229; and C & A p.12, #459---but see C & A p.15 note 229, which indicates a possible weakness in this line.

Olive's ancestry also traces through her mother, Melinda Bearse, James Bearse, and Judah Bearse to Desire (Downs) Bearse. (Teel-Thomas,p.64, #15, #30; p.65, #60; and p.88, #121) Desire's ancestry traces in three lines to John Howland and his wife Elizabeth Tilley. First it traces through her father, William Downs, to his mother Elizabeth (Gorham) Downs who is MI #15205, a descendant of John Howland (Teel-Thomas, p.88, #242 and #485). Desire's ancestry also traces through her mother Elizabeth (Baxter) Downs to Elizabeth's mother, Desire (Gorham) Baxter, who is MI #53784, another descendant of John Howland. (Teel-Thomas, p.88 #243, #487 and #974) Finally, Desire's ancestry traces again through Elizabeth (Baxter) Downs, through Elizabeth's father John Baxter, to his mother Temperance (Gorham) Baxter who is MI #15363, another descendant of John Howland. (Teel-Thomas p.88, #486, #973; p.139 note 973; and p. 138 note 970) Temperance is shown in MI as married to Edward Sturgis who was her first husband. He d. 8 Dec 1678 (Sturgis,pp.14-15) and she m. (2) Yarmouth 27 Jul 1679/80 Thomas Baxter. (Shaw,p.110)

For descendants of Charles Austin in all lines see Teel-Thomas pp.157-59 and C & A p.20.

D1072. Ira was a "bonnet presser". See also note D580.

D1082. Francis S. was Corp. in the Civ War. While still in service he d. in Carrollton Hospital LA 1863. (Mass SSM Civ, v.1,pp.159,238; Weston,p.172)

D1088. Much of the information on James Albert and his family was from Jones.

D1092. In Shurtleff, v.1, p.231 (ist ed.) from which the entry regarding Susan is taken, there is no mention of a div from her first husband. See comment on a similar situation in note D764.

D1103. George B. was a Corp., promoted to Sgt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.373; Weston, pp.136, 182)

D1115. Eliphalet W. was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Nat.Pen.#805669; Mass SSM Civ, v.5,p.249)

D1134. This family is from the 1850 census of Midd and from Wood (his #237). Thatcher says (p.11) Nelson (D1134) had a w. Susan C., and gives Sarah (D1567) as ch. of Nelson and Susan. Shurtleff (v.2,p.163) gives her to Nelson (D1138) and Lucy. Shurtleff has been found much more reliable than Thatcher on relationships, and is followed here.

D1138. Nelson was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.368, Weston,p.181) The family is from Shurtleff (v.2,p.163). See also note D1134.

D1142. This entry is from the 1850 Hart census.

D1177. Information on descendants of William Brooks Thomas was supplied by Alma A. Thomas (D1806).

D1187. Cyrus was a soldier in the Civ War. He later was a Sgt on the Boston police force. (Biog Sket,p.571; Mass SSM Civ, v.1,p.16)

D1188. William, a physician of Yarmouth ME, served in the Civ War. (Biog Sket., p.571)

D1191. A biographical sketch of Robert is in Biog Sket, p.571.

D1195. Thatcher (p.45, #55; P.46, #56) shows George Ellis Thomas was b. 12 Apr 1839, s. Azel and Harriet (Thompson) Thomas. Wood (his #310) shows "Sgt George E. Thomas, s. Azel, killed in Battle 12 May 1864." Mass SSM Civ shows no such person in the service. What it does show (v.1,p.706) is that George Ellis [NOT Thomas] of Monson, Worcester Co., a Corp., ae 25 on enlistment 31 May 1861, was killed 12 May 1864 at Spottsylvania VA. If this was a Thomas it was D1198 who was b. 1836, not D1195 b.1839.

D1196. Dea. Henry B. Whitman was a harness-maker of S.Braintree. (Whitman,p.327) He was a Pvt in the Civ War, wounded in the Battle of the Wilderness VA 6 May 1864, and mustered out 15 May 1865. (Mass SSM Civ,v.2,p.42; v.4,p.60)

D1197. Thatcher says (p.45) Mary was Mary Adeline, but MI #34502 shows she was Mary J. As she was a Member of the Mayflower Society it is assumed MI is right.

D1198. See note D1195.

D1207. Francis was a shoemaker. He served in the Civ War,and d.of disease contracted in line of duty. (Nat.Pen.#5161; Mass SSM Civ, v.3,p.303)

D1223. Henry is from the 1850 census of Winthrop ME.

D1238. Information on descendants of Peter Bellis is from McGovern---see Bibliography.

D1247. Julius Andrew served in the Civ War in the 8th IL Cavalry. (E.Thomas)

D1266. Roger W. was a shoemaker. (Pemb VR) He was Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.5,p.702)

D1281. George Elton was a merchant. He served as a Selectman of Hanson. (Brewster,p.804)

D1287. The 1850 census shows a Delia I. Thomas in Bridg, ae 19, with a Clara Thomas 4. It is quite possible that this was Delia (D1287), as no other Delia Thomas was found in Plmth Co. Clara may well have been dau Nathan Alden (D1287) and Delia. See U37.

D1294. Benjamin H. was Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.3,p.446)

D1302. Gershom B. was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.5,pp.252,283)

D1323. Lyman received a B.S. degree from Dartmouth College 1884. After a year of teaching he worked for the Santa Fe RR. as construction and maintenance engineer for over 4 yr. Then he worked 4 yr. for the N.Y.,N.H.& Hartford RR.; then went into business for himself as a civil engineer and contractor. In 1916 he joined the firm of Thomas Brothers which operated a general store in S.Midd. (Hilditch, citing History of Plmth, Norfolk and Barns Counties, v.3,p.174)

D1334. There is a conflict about Laura Randall. Shurtleff (v.1,p.365) says she was b. Braintree 1831. Randall (p.116) says she was b. Dux 29 Dec 1829. There are no Randall births in the published Braintree VR. The only birth of a Laura Randall in Dux VR has a date of 25 Jan 1834. More conclusively, the Dux Laura was dau James and Deborah Randall, yet both Shurtleff and Randall agree that the Laura who m. Elisha (D1334) was dau Seth and Lucy (Tubbs) Randall. The compiler has found Shurtleff to be very accurate as a rule, and it is followed in this case.

D1342. Andrew E. (D1342) ae 23, his bro Joseph (D1343) ae 20, Winslow (D938) ae 46, and Stephen F. (D1439) ae 19, were all members of the 4th Massachusetts Inf. All enlisted on 19 Sep 1862. The 4th Mass.Inf. was in Brashear City LA 23 Jun 1863 when the city was captured by the Confederates, and a large number of prisoners were taken. (Mass SSM Civ,v.1,p.228) Andrew was taken prisoner, but was paroled 25 Jun and d. at Brashear City LA 27 Jun 1863. Joseph d. at Port Hudson LA on Aug 1st that year. Like Andrew, Winslow was taken prisoner at Brashear City LA and paroled two days later. He was mustered out 28 Aug 1863, but d. at Plmth 7 Jun 1866, and in all probability the war service had hastened his end, as he was only 49 when he d. Stephen had d. of disease in a hospital in New Orleans LA on 1 May 1863. (Mass SSM Civ, v.1,p.241; Weston, pp.194, 175)

D1343. See note D1342.

D1368. This family is from Hilditch, citing History of Plmth, Norfolk and Barns Counties, v.3,p.233. Leon (D1696) was an industrial writer, Claude (D1697) was in the life insurance business.

D1375. John Bartlett Stetson was s. Elisha and Betsey (Bartlett) Stetson, and Betsey was dau John Bartlett (MI #2572) who was descended from William Brewster and Richard Warren, both of the Mayflower. Elisha Stetson traces through his father Hezekiah to Abel Stetson whose w. Lydia Washburn was dau Elisha Washburn (MI #36577), descended from John Billington of the Mayflower. These lines are shown in the papers filed with the Mayflower Society by Margaret (Smith) Stead (Mayflower #37692).

D1397. George served as Pvt and Corp in the 18th Mass.Inf. from 7 Dec 1861 until discharged for disability 12 Jul 1863. He was called a mariner on enlistment. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.368) He is also referred to as a shoemaker and moulder. (Nat.Pen.#228828) Genealogical information is from Nat.Pen. cited and VR. See note D937.

D1399. Linus Bradford served in the Civ war. (Mass SSM Civ, v.1,p.127; Nat.Pen.#702437 and #624541) See note D937.

D1409. Arad jr. was Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.368; Weston,p.181)

D1410. Frederick was Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.5,p.249; Nat.Pen. #W.C.588,941)

D1417. The entry of Emma is based on the 1850 census of Carver.

D1423. George N. jr. was a barber. The family is from the 1860 census of Plmth.

D1426. James A. was a druggist of Plmth. (1860 Plmth census)

D1427. "Isaac of Weymouth", a shoemaker, ae 25 on enlistment Jun 1861, was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.53) The soldier's w. was Elizabeth J. Holbrook, who d. 1892. (Nat.Pen. #112629; VR) "Isaac, husband of Elizabeth J. Holbrook", was b.1836 (Weym VR) Davis (p.260) shows George Nelson Thomas had a s. Isaac D. b. 1837; and the 1850 Plmth census shows Isaac D., 13, in the family of George N. All these items seem to relate to the same person. No other Isaac is found in Plmth Co. or in Weym who was b.c. 1836-7.

D1428. Nathaniel H. is from the 1850 Plmth census.

D1439. See note D1342.

D1454. Isaac H. is from the 1850 census of N.Bed.

D1486. Albert Shaw was a grocery merchant and a school teacher. (Hilditch, citing History of Plmth, Norfolk and Barns Counties,v.3,p.236)

D1502. For descendants of Horatio William in all lines see Teel-Thomas, pp.155-56. These lines are, to a large extent, from Whidden--see Bibliography.

D1506. Ira Vaughan (D1506) and his bro Charles (D1512), together with a third bro George, owned and operated Vaughan Machinery Co. in Peabody, a large leather-machinery company. In 1901 Ira and Charles sold their interests to George, and mpved to Philadelphia PA, becoming members of the firm of Dungan Hood & Co., manufacturers of fine leather. Their business ventures were highly successful. (Peabody,p.397)

D1512. See note D1506.

D1516. See note D580.

D1519. Edward Everett was, perhaps, the "Edward E. Thomas of Assonet" who was Pvt in the Civ War, said to have been 21 in 1864. (Mass SSM Civ, v.5,p.107) Edward Everett would have been bet 16 and 17, but may have mis-stated his age to get into service.

D1523. Harry Earl Fortier started as a teacher, but after four years became Superintendant of Schools, first in Hartland ME, then Ashford, Charleston, Lee and Springfield, all in ME, a service of 25 years in such positions.
Priscilla Alden (Fortier) Jones (see Acknowledgements in the Foreword, and "Jones" in the Bibliography) was dau Harry Earl and Elizabeth Bradford (Thomas) Fortier (D1523). She supplied much information for the present compilation.

D1631. William Henry McGowen is an attorney of Birmingham AL. (McGowen)

D1672. Edwin received his LL.B. from Yale 1895. He was Representative in the General Assembly 1899, Secretary of the Democratic State Committee 1900-13, and in 1913 he became a U.S. District Judge. (Virkus,v.6,p.565)

D1679. Waldo was Town Clerk of Midd. (Jones)

D1705. Frederick was a civil engineer. He served 18 Jan 1892 to 9 Mar 1895 in Troop A, 6th Cavalry Regt. His leg was fractured when his horse fell on him 22 Sep 1892. In the Spanish-American War he enlisted 3 May 1898 in the 2d Mass. Vol. Inf. He became Company Clerk, but was promoted to Sgt21 Aug 1898. In World War II, as a Reserve Capt., he was ordered to duty 6 Sep 1917 and served until 24 Jun 1919. He was in the A.E.F. with the Field Remount Service. (Nat.Pen.#1192536; W.C.1596978)

D1733. The spelling of the name is confusing as to the sex of the child, but Thatcher (p.53) says this was a dau.

D1761. See note D206.

D1815. Will Lloyd was an architect. (B.Thomas)

D1849. Charles Odber Smith was s. Charles Knowlton Smith and gr.s. Bowen Smith (MI#70176) who was descended from Edward Fuller of the Mayflower. These lines are shown in the papers filed with the Mayflower Society by Margaret (Smith) Stead (Mayflower #37692).

D1904. This family is from letter Clyde S. Thomas jr. to Jones.

D1907. Harlan Carther is a Contract Sales Marketing Manager for Sears Roebuck and Co HDQTRS. Mayflower Descendant from John Alden, Isaac Allerton and George Soule (MI#34903) Gov. IL.Soc, GSMD Publ.Chrmn, Publisher.

NOTES on the

JOHN THOMAS FAMILY

NOTES on the JOHN THOMAS FAMILY

J1. John Thomas, at age 14, came from London in the Hopewell, arriving at Boston the end of November 1635. He is said to have been an orphan. Gov. Edward Winslow, who had a home at Green Harbor in Marshfield, took him into his family, and he became the steward of the estate. (Banks,p.175; Richards,p.89; Davis,p.261) Gov. Winslow had been to England on behalf of the Colony, and returned in Nov 1635 on the Hopewell, so he undoubtedly met John on the ship if not before. (Briggs,v.2,p.662)

Family tradition says that paternal property in England was lost for John by being improperly entrusted. However, in 1643, after John was 21, Gov. Winslow helped right this by making a number of grants of land to John. (Winslow,v.1,p.175) John's house after his marriage was about half way between Gov. Winslow's and that of William Thomas (W1). (Briggs,v.2,p.663)

In 1648 John married Sarah Pitney who had come to America with her mother in the Planter in 1635. Her father, James Pitney, had come earlier. James and his wife rem. to Boston aft 1648, but returned to Plmth, where he d. 1663-4. (Briggs,v.2, pp.662-4)

John served as constable of Marsh as well as being on groups conducting inquests for the Colony. He later was surveyor of highways. (Plmth Col,v.3,pp.70,72; v.4, p.61; v.5,p.232; v.6,p.12)

No record of the death of John has been found. A John Thomas (U82) is said by Miss Marcia A. Thomas (J345) in her Memorials of Marshfield (see note J345) to have been bur. Marsh 26 Jun 1673 (Marsh VR,p.427); but, as we shall see, he clearly was not John (J1). Richards (p.89) and Briggs (v.2,p.664) say John (J1) d. 1676. However, this seems to be in error. "John Seni'r" and "John Juni'r" were both appointed to offices in 1679 (Plmth Col,v.6,pp.11,12). These must have been John (J1) and John (J2). Marsh VR show (p.13) that "Sarah the wife /not the wid./ of John Thomas Seniour was Buri The 2ond of January 1682." The research of Milton Halsey Thomas shows John (J1) certainly did not d. bef 1687. "He is called John Thomas sr. /in Town records/ in 1683 to distinguish him from his son John, who first turns up in the records in 1679...The two John Thomases appear in a list of townsmen of Marshfield in 1684... His name continues to appear on the town records until 1686-7." (101 Reg. 73) His inventory was not taken until 12 Jan 1691/2 (31 MD 64), which seems to indicate he did not d. until c. 1691.

J2. John (J2) served as constable of Marsh 1679. (Plmth Col,v.6,p.11)

J6. The marriage of Sarah to Benjamin Phillips is asserted by Davis (p.261), by Richards (p.89) and by Phillips (pp.123-4). It is in Marsh VR (p.16). Ford (p.19) seems to be wrong in saying she m. Josiah Ford. No such marriage is in the VR. Josiah Ford had a w. Sarah by whom he had ch. b. Marsh 1688-1705 (Marsh VR,pp.28-9), but she was not Sarah Thomas (J6). Benjamin and Sarah Phillips had ch. b. Marsh 1685-1704 (VR,pp.17,18,20,24,30,43). See also note J275.

J8. Ephraim rem. to Little Compton RI (Richards,p.90). The marriage of Ephraim is from RIVR,v.4,Pt.6,Little Compton, p.63. The rest of the information on Ephraim and his wife and son (unless otherwise indicated) is from letters bet. Jones and the late Claude W. Barlow, an able genealogist, copies of which were furnished the compiler by Jones.

The compiler had thought that Alice Church was the Alice who was bp. Scit 23 Aug 1679, dau Nathaniel and Sarah (Barstow) Church, the only Alice in the Church Genealogy (Church,p.34) who could have m. 1696. However, Barlow discovered that this Alice was unm. in 1708, while Ephraim m. his Alice in 1696.

Jones found the following information. Sylvanus Soule was guardian of Joseph (J32), s. Ephraim and Alice (Church) Thomas. Sylvanus received from the estate of Constant Church (whose wid. was Patience) a grant of land for the guardianship. Soule (p.1050) says Joseph's "mother was Alice Church, a sister of Constant Church, husband of Patience." Constant Church who m. Patience Soule is known to have been s. Col. Benjamin and Alice (Southworth) Church; and while Alice was never listed among the ch. of Benjamin, the quoted Soule statement would mean that she was his dau. Barlow found that in 1716 Constant Church conveyed two 25-acre tracts of land to Ephraim Thomas, Benjamin taking the acknowledgement, and that the estate of Ephraim Thomas paid debts to Constant Church, to his bro Charles Church, and to his sis Elizabeth Sampson. There was obviously a close association between the family of Benjamin Church and Ephraim Thomas. Soule seems clearly right in saying Alice was dau Col. Benjamin Church. Barlow and Jones also reached this conclusion.

Barlow says an account under the title Entertaining History of King Philip's War was prob written by Benjamin Church, gr.s. of Col. Benjamin. It was published in Boston 1716, second edition in Newport 1772. It says Benjamin was s. Joseph Church; but later authority of high repute says Benjamin was s. Richard Church. (Shaw,p.154)

Barlow also found that both Joseph (J32) and his w. Abigail were living in Plmth 8 Mar 1780.

J12. Thomas Bk. says (p.141) that "Samuel, younger son of Samuel and Mercy (Ford) Thomas, b. Dec 7, 1685, [i.e. Samuel (J12)] settled with his wife Jeanette (who died August 18, 1756, ae 56) at Worcester. He died May 20, 1755, leaving a son David. David rem. to Pelham." It then tells the subsequent history of David's family.

The vital records tell a somewhat different story. Plmth Ch (v.1,p.18) states that Samuel, s. Samuel and Mercy, was b. 7 Dec 1685, as Thomas Bk states. However, there is no evidence that he rem. to Worcester. On the contrary, Marsh VR show (p.411) that "Samuel d. 22 Sep 1768 in 83d yr.", and that "Rebecca, wid. of Samuel, d. 13 Mar 1798 in 94th yr." Samuel had m. Dux 15 Feb 1727/8 Rebecca Howland who was b. Marsh 13 Nov 1704 (VR). No Samuel is found in Marsh who could have m. 1727/8 other than Samuel (J12). It seems clear that Samuel, s. Samuel and Mercy (Ford) Thomas, m. Rebecca Howland; and the Marsh historian confirms this (Richards,v.2,pp.90-91), as does Briggs (v.2,p.670). Furthermore, Rebecca whom Samuel m. 1727/8 survived him, so he could not have had a second wife Jeanette; and Jeanette could not have been a first wife for she lived until 1756, but Samuel m. Rebecca 1727/8. This Thomas Bk account seems clearly wrong in saying Samuel of Worcester was Samuel (J12).

The rest of the Thomas Bk account is quite accurate. David of Pelham m. (1) Pelham 14 Apr 1750 Elizabeth Cowan; and (2) Lancaster 18 Nov 1755 Elizabeth Harper (VR). David and Elizabeth were the parents of David jr., bp Worcester 4 Oct 1761 (VR), who became a soldier of the Rev War (Mass SS Rev; 9 DAR Lin 253). He thereafter rem. to Salem NY and m. his cousin Jeanette Turner---her mother was Susanna Thomas, sis of David sr. (Wash Co.,No.1, pp.55-56, 60) He finally rem. to Providence RI where he d. 27 Nov 1831. (19 RIVR 176) For biographical data on this David see Thomas Bk,p.141.

The only Samuel of New England found who could have been Samuel of Worcester is the s. of Benjamin of Springfield and his w. Ann Belding of Hatfield. Since that Samuel was b. Springfield 7 Jan 1699 and Jeanette, w. of Samuel of Worcester, was b.c. 1700, he was of the right age and of the right area to be in Worcester with this Jeanette as his wife and to have had a s. David who m. Pelham 1750. (Savage, v.4,p.282; VR) James Graham says Samuel of Worcester d. 1755 ae 67 (37 Reg 310), but it is believed this is a typographical error (67 for 56) in age at death. Since Benjamin of Springfield was s. Howland of Sprignfield, who was a pioneer of Massachusetts (Savage,v.4,p.282; Pope), Samuel of Worcester and David of Pelham and Worcester were not members of any of the Thomas families herein dealt with.

Thomas Howland, father of Rebecca who m. Samuel (J12),was s. Arthur Howland jr. (see note J72), hence not descended from John of the Mayflower. (Marsh VR,p.7)

J13. Giles Mem. (p.192) says that John Holmes d. 23 Jan 1748 and that Sarah (J13), his wife, "lived to be 100 years of age". Richards (p.90) also says Sarah "d. age nearly 100 years". Since she was b.c. 1686 this would mean she d.c. 1786. But Shaw (p.79) says John d. Plymp 6 Apr 1754 and Sarah d. Halifax 15 Sep 1761. Plymp VR confirm that John d. there 6 Apr 1754 in 70th yr (i.e.b.c.1684 as John Holmes was). Although nothing was found in published Halifax VR comcerning Sarah, Shaw is extremely reliable and is followed. It is thought that this story of Sarah's age of 100 at death was due to confusing her with Sarah (J6) who was b. 1661 and would have been 100 in 1761 when Sarah (J13) died.

J14. Davis is wrong in saying Sarah Bartlett was dau Samuel and Hannah (Pabodie) Bartlett, who was b. aft 1700. Nathan's wife Sarah d. 1778 ae 83, i.e.b.c.1695-6, and Sarah Foster, wid. William Bartlett, was b. 1696. (37 Am. Gen. 149; Briggs, v.3,p.873)

J15. Maine (p.386) confuses Joseph (W22), b. 1702, s. Nathaniel, with Joseph (J15), b. 1690, s. Samuel. It says Joseph (W22) was the father of a Joseph whose sons Joseph and Ichabod rem. to ME.

Plymp VR show that Joseph Thomas (W22) m. Hannah Loring, and that "Joseph Thomas Esq., h. Hannah (dau Caleb Loring Esq. of P.) s. Nath'l Esq. of Marsh, d. 22 Mar 1743/4, in 42d yr." This means he was b.c. 1702, the year Joseph (W22) was born. He had two sons named Joseph (W65 and W66), but both d.y. He had no gr.s. named Ichabod. (VR)

Joseph (J15) m. Marsh where he was b. and where he raised his family. The VR prove he, not Joseph (W22) as Maine thought, was the father of Joseph (J63), b. 1719, whose sons were Joseph (J193), b. 1756, and Ichabod (J194), b. 1758. (Marsh VR, pp.40, 84, 142, 110)

The descent from Joseph (J15) herein given follows Winslow (v.1,pp.166ff). Certain information regarding the descendants in ME of Ichabod (J194) has been taken from Maine. (p.386).

J17. Heinz states that Josiah (D14), s.David (D2), was b. 1691; that he m. Deborah ----; and that they had the ch (J72-79) who are herein given to Josiah (J17). Holman says the will of David (D2) dated 14 Feb 1732/3 mentions among his ch. s. Josiah, but Holman gives that Josiah no w. or ch. and says he d. 1750.

Josiah "of Marshfield" (J17), bp Marsh 1698, s. Samuel and Mercy, m. Dux 19 Dec 1723 Deborah Bartlett (VR; Richards,p.90), and the ch. listed as J72-79 are shown by the Dux VR to be ch. of "Josiah and Deborah". Heinz agrees that Josiah (J17) m. Deborah Bartlett, although it gives them no ch. It adds: "Probably this family and that of /Josiah (D14)/ are confused." (Heinz, p.14 of John Thomas Family) Heinz did confuse them, and the compiler confesses to making the same mistake in his Teel-Thomas in 1964.

Deborah, w. Josiah (J17), prob m. (2) Capt. Benjamin Lothrop. She is the only Deborah found who might have done so. Barns VR (6 MD 237-8) show a Benjamin Lothrop b. 1697 to Hope and Elizabeth Lothrop, and another Benjamin b. 1704 to John Lothrop. "Benjamin jr. of Barns" m. (1) Plmth 1727 Experience Howland (VR in 14 MD 72). "Benjamin jr." is to be read as meaning the junior Benjamin of Barns. He was the Benjamin b. 1704---see last sentence of this note. Lothrop (p.52) shows this marriage as being "Capt. Benjamin", and says Experience d. 5 Sep 1748. "Capt. Benjamin" m. (2) Plmth 5 May 1748 "Mrs. Deborah Thomas of Plmth" (Plmth VR in 17 MD 6; Kings VR). /Lothrop seems to be mistaken as to the date of death of Experience---4 mo. aft Benjamin m. Deborah!/ "Capt. Benjamin" m. (3) 1757 Ruth Putnam who d. 1778 (Kings VR); and (4) 1799 Mary (Hallet) Hedge (Kings VR; Lothrop,p.52). Lothrop shows only the first and last marriages, but there can be no question of the other two which are in the VR of Plmth and Kings. Kings VR in 7 MD 167 say Capt. Benjamin d. 23 Sep 1787 "in 84th yr.", which confirms that he was the Benjamin b. Barns 1704.

J20. The wife of David (J20) is from Jones and M.H.Thomas.

J28. John (J28) did not m. Abigail Donham as was formerly asserted (Davis,261) and as Plmth VR (which show Abigail m. "John Thomas") might suggest (14 MD 71; 15 MD 210-11). John, h. Abigail d. 5 Jul 1765 "ae 87" (Plmth Ch., v.2,p.414); but John (J28), who was b. 4 Nov 1700 (Dux VR) would have been still in his 85th yr. on 5 Jul 1785. John, h. Abigail, is carried herein as John (U82).

John (J23) rem.to CT with his bro Ebenezer (J29) and Eziekel (J30) and settled in Lebanon, as did Eziekel. (See note by M.H.Thomas (J878) in 91 Reg 196.) He m. Hannah Spofford (MI #34485 and #34861; Spofford,p.54; Jones; M.H.Thomas). Hannah's parents rem. from Boxford to Lebanon CT c. 1718 when she was only 9 yr. old, so her marriage to John undoubtedly took place in CT, prob c. 1733 (Spofford,p.43). His ch. were b. Lebanon (Barbour). His grave in Lebanon shows he d. 8 Mar 1785 in "85th yr." (Jones)

J37. Israel Hatch was s. Israel (Scit VR), not of Walter as has been said (Briggs, v.2,p.671).

J40. Nehemiah was a tanner. He was Town Clerk of Marsh for over 30 yr. He rendered "invaluable service in the American Revolution as a counsellor and committeeman". (Winslow, v.1,p.174) He was a Member of the Provincial Congress at Salem and at Concord. (Briggs, v.2,p.677; DAR-PI) He was a Delegate to the Assembly at Watertown in 1775, and in 1776 was again chosen to the General Court there. While absent from home on one of these occasions the Whigs seized a quantity of tea they had deposited in his house, and they burned it "with much eclat" on a rock, which became known as Tea Rock. (Winslow, v.1,p.174) See also note W54.

J42,43.Richards shows Jane (J43) was b. 31 Dec 1718 and (p.91) that Deborah (J42) was b. 28 Apr 1719. Marsh VR (pp.37-38) give the births as 31 Dec 1718 and 28 Apr 1718 respectively. Richards obviously is in error as to the date of birth of Deborah.

J44. James Bradford was Deputy for Plainfield CT. (Waterman, v.1,p.627) Information on his first w. is from 24 Am.Gen. 227.

J46. The family bible of Anthony has dates of birth, marriage and death of members of his family varying very slightly from those used in the tables, which are from official records. For the bible entries see 16 Reg 202.

Anthony was with his bro John (J48) at Dorchester Heights in 1776---see note J48. (Briggs, v.2,p.680) He was Col., 2d Plmth Regt 1775-6 (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI) See also notes W48 and W54.

J48. After studying medicine John became a physician of Kings. He entered the British Army in 1746 as a surgeon, but in 1755 or soon thereafter he became a Lieut, and by 1759 he was a Col. with a command in N.S. After the end of the French War in Sep 1759 he returned to the practice of medicine in Kings.

He was Representative to the General Court 1759-60. In 1760 he was commissioned Col.of Provincials and commanded a regiment at Crown Point, which marched in the advance on Canada. He was Town Clerk 1764-66, and Selectman 1763-75.

At the outbreak of the Revolution in 1775 he recruited a regiment of volunteers. Then he was appointed Brig.Gen. by the Provincial Congress. By special resolve of the Congress his commission as Brig. Gen. had precedence over all other Brigadiers. He served under Gen. Washington at Dorchester Heights in 1776, commanding the forces there. On the night of 4 Mar 1776 he occupied Dorchester Heights and threw up entrenchments which were a large factor in compelling the British to withdraw from Boston. An intersting account of this tactic is in the magazine Yankee for March 1976 at p.80.

On 6 Mar 1776 John became a Maj.Gen. and joined forces going to assist in the expedition against Quebec. After the death of Gen. Montgomery John succeeded him in command of the forces. He found only about 50% of his command fit for duty, and he was opposed by a much larger and better equipped force. After consulting with his officers he withdrew. Then he caught small pox, from which he d. 2 Jun 1776 at Chambly, Quebec, Canada, about 10 miles from Montreal. Thomaston ME is said to be named for him.

(The foregoing is based on Briggs,v.2,pp.682-702, which contains much additional biographical data on John; Richards,p.96; Thomas Bk., p.140; Mass SS Rev; Heitman; DAR-PI; and SE Mass, p.699.)

J52. Information on Asa's w. Jemima is from 26 Am.Gen.75.

J58. William, known as "Capt. Willie", went to Malden to learn the trade of a shoemaker, and there m. his first w. After her death he returned to Marsh and there m. his second w.

Before the Revolution started, the powder and ammunition of Marsh were stored at Capt. Willie's house. On 20 Dec 1774 British Gen. Balfour took up quarters at the house of Nathaniel Ray Thomas (W54), a Tory, who held a commission in the British Army, and whose house was close to that of Capt. Willie; so at midnight men with ox carts removed the stores to places of greater safety. See note W54 regarding Nathaniel Ray.

At the time of the Battle of Lexington a messenger rode all night to carry the news to Capt. Willie, who thereupon gave the pre-arranged signal that hostilities had commenced by firing guns which had been placed on a hill so that all might hear. Capt. Willie became a soldier in the Rev War. (Richards, pp.97-8; Mass SS Rev; Nat. Pen V19441)

J60. Ichabod rem. to Pemb to learn the ship-building trade from Capt. Turner, and then m. the Captain's dau and settled in Pemb. One of the vessels Ichabod built was the "Beaver" from which tea was thrown into Boston Harbor 16 Dec 1773. Another was the "Bedford" which arrived in England 6 Feb 1783 with the Stars and Stripes flying ---the first time the American flag was displayed in England. (Richards, pp.100-101)

In 1762 Ichabod was an Ensign, in 1765 a Capt. of the Pemb militia. He was in the French and Indian Wars. (Briggs, v.2,p.707)

J64. Samuel Thomas jr. m. Mary Cushing (Marsh VR,p.162). Samuel, h. Mary Cushing, d. 22 Dec 1795, ae 74 yr., 3 mo., 17 dy. (Waterman, v.2,p.627). That means he was b. 5 Sep 1721, which was the date of birth of Samuel, s. Joseph and Lydia (Marsh VR, p.84). Mary Cushing b. Plymp 1729-30, dau Ignatius and Ruth, was the only Mary Cushing found in Plmth Co. in that period. (Cushing, pp.39, 52) See note J200.

J66. On 5 Feb 1765 the house of Eleazer Harlow (J66) burned "and took the lives of his dau Abigail ae 12 3/4 yr and his wife's dau ae 10 3/4 yr." (29 MD 176)

J72. Marsh VR (p.161) and Plmth VR (17 MD 9) both say William Thomas "of Plmth" m. 26 Nov 1747 Susanna Howland of Marsh. Marsh VR show that she was b. 4 Mar 1728/9. There is no birth of William Thomas recorded in Plmth VR, but the birth of William (J72) in 1724 to Josiah and Deborah is recorded in Dux. No other William was found in the vicinity who could have been the husband of Susanna. William may have been in Plmth at the time of the marriage but returned to Dux, where the ch. of William and Susanna were b. (Dux VR)

Dux VR and MI #34513 and #34532 show that "William Thomas and Susanna ----" had a s. Prince (J207). MI shows that Prince m. Abigail Pratt, and Hing (p.241) shows that they had a dau Mary (J410) who m. Thomas Sampson. MI #2491 and #34532 show that William was s. Josiah and Deborah (Bartlett) Thomas, thus confirming the relationships just discussed. Thomas Sampson is MI #29454.

Ebenezer Howland, father of Susanna, was s. Arthur jr., who was s. Arthur sr. Arthur sr. came to Plmth from Eng 1623. Hence Susanna was not descended from John Howland of the Mayflower. (Marsh VR, p.27; Howland, p.11) See also note J12.

William "of Dux" was Pvt in the Rev War 1775 and 1777, and Sgt 1777. (Mass SS Rev) William (J72) is the only William found in Dux at this period.

J73. Joshua was a minuteman Pvt 19 April 1775. (Nat.Pen.W26532; Mass SS Rev) Thomaston says (v.2,p.425) "Joshua b. Dux m. Mercy Ozier, Ogier or Osyer", but Dux and Pemb VR both show that Joshua (J73) m. "Mercy Barstow" of Pemb. He is the only Joshua with a w. Mercy. The only other Joshua in Dux was his s. who m. Mary Burgess.

J74. See note J95.

J78. See note J206.

J80. Descendants of David (J80)and the information about his w. Mercy are from Jones and M.H.Thomas. David (J80) was Pvt from Marsh in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev)

J82. "Daniel of Pemb" was a Pvt in the Rev War (Mass SS Rev). The parents of Daniel (J82) had m. Pemb, and he is the only Daniel found who might be "Daniel of Pemb".

J87. Benjamin was Pvt in the Rev War 1776. (Mass SS Rev)

J95. Peleg was a Lieut. in the Rev War. (107 DAR Lin 130; 120 DAR Lin 200) Heinz wrongly says Peleg, b. 1728, was s. Josiah (D14), and that he m. Mary Bartlett and had Clarissa (who m. Joseph Metcalf) and Mary (who m. Daniel Isham). The compiler in his Teel-Thomas followed Heinz. He has since learned that Peleg, b. 1728, was Peleg (J74), s. Josiah (J17)---see note J17--- but that Peleg who m. Mary Bartlett was Peleg (J95), b. Lebanon CT 1 Feb 1736, s. John (J28). (Barbour; Spofford,pp.43,54)

J101. Descendants of Malachi are from M.H.Thomas. Malachi was a Sgt in the Rev War.

J112. Simeon was Pvt from CT in the Rev War. (DAR-PI)

J129. Noah was a minuteman 19 April 1775 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev)

J131. Zattu Cushing was taken captive at Meduncook ME 11 Sep 1758. He later rem. to Roch. (Cushing,p.69)

J132. See note W54.

J143. Amos was Quartermaster in a Light Horse Regiment in the Rev War. (45 DAR Lin 229)

J149. See note W54 and note J178.

J154. Winslow was Pvt in 1780 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI)

J155. Rev. Nehemiah Thomas was Harvard College 1789. (Cushing,p.71) He was minister at Scit 1792-1831. (Briggs,v.2,p.720)

J156. See note J166.

J158. Briggs was First Lieut. in the Rev War 1776. (Mass SS Rev; Briggs,v.2,p.722; DAR-PI) See also note W54.

J161. The Church records show that Rev. Willis was "Pastor of this Church for sixty-six years, four months and fourteen days". (Kings VR)

J162. During the seige of Boston John, a lad of ten, ran away from home and joined his father (J48) at Dorchester Heights. (SE Mass,p.900; Mass SS Rev---"John jr.") See note J48.

J164. Peleg served 1781 as Pvt in the Rev War. (Nat.Pen.R10511)

J166. A Charles Thomas m. (int) Marsh 15 Oct 1793 "Polley Cushman of Dux" (Marsh VR p. 120). Their ch. were b. Marsh. Polley was an alternate for Mary, and Mary Cushman, dau Joshua and Mercy (Wadsworth) Cushman, was b. Dux 1768. Cushman (p.189) says the Charles who m. this Mary (whom it calls Mercy) was Charles, the s. of Nehemiah and Abiah Thomas,who "d. Marsh 28 Jun 1839, ae 69 yr, 9 mo (gravestone)", i.e. Charles (J156). (See Marsh VR,p.410) Cushman cites as its authority an 1855 Cushman Genealogy which seems to have based its conclusion solely on the gravestone inscription just quoted.

Two later authorities (Winslow,v.2,p.176; Briggs,v.2,p.678) are quite right in saying that Charles (J156) m. Saba Everson, not Polley Cushman. This is conclusively shown by other gravestone records (Marsh VR, pp.410-11) which show that Charles, his w. Saba, and their four dau are all on the same Charles Thomas monument, and that that Charles d. 15 Jun 1848 ae 80. He must have been s. Nehemiah, b. 6 Feb 1768. The Charles who d. 28 Jun 1839 ae 69 yr, 9 mo (VR) was Charles (J166) who was b. Marsh 1 Oct 1769, s. Abijah and Deborah (Sampson) Thomas. (VR) He was the Charles who m. Polley Cushman.

J168. William served as Corp. in the Rev War 1776 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Briggs,v.2, p.706) See also note W54.

J177. Nathan, then of Scit, was Pvt minuteman 19 Apr 1775, and served again in 1775, 1776 and 1780. (Mass SS Rev; Nat.Pen.W1955; 113 DAR Lin 78) Descendants of Nathan (J177) are from Jones.

J178. Nathaniel of Marsh served as Pvt in the Rev War 1776. (Mass SS Rev) This prob was J178, bro Nathan (J177) who was a minuteman and served again later; but it could have been Nathaniel (J149).

J183. Descendants of Abel are from Jones.

J184. Ichabod scceeded his father in the ship-building trade. He was an Ensign 1791, Lieut. 1795, and Capt. 1802. (Briggs,v.2,p.724)

J185. Rev. Whitman graduated from Harvard College 1779, and was ordained 1785 as pastor of the Congregational Church of Wellfleet. He was Representative of Wellfleet in the Constitutional Convention 1787. In 1808, aft 23 yr of service in the Church, the Town voted "to give Mr. Whitman $500 to ask a dismission from the work of the ministry." He accepted, and retired to Kings. (Whitman,p.371)

J186. Briggs (v.2,p.719) says Charles m. Dorothy Drew 1788 and rem. to Macomb, McDonough Co. IL.

J193. Joseph "of Dux" was a Pvt in the Rev War 1776-77. (Mass SS Rev) This was Joseph (J193) whose bro Ichabod and Samuel also served. See notes J194 and J195.

J194. Ichabod served as Pvt in the Rev War 1776, 1777 and 1778 (Nat.Pen.#32018; Mass SS Rev). He was a Justice of the Peace, and was Representative to the General Court in Boston, going there from Sidney ME on horseback. (Maine,p.386) See note J15.

J195. Samuel was a carpenter. He was Town Treasurer of Vinalhaven ME 1820-1825. (Vinalhaven,pp.54,36-37) He served in the Rev War. (Nat.Pen.S28909 and R10514; Mass SS Rev; Waterman,v.2,p.627) See note J200.

Descendants of Samuel (J195) are from Jones.

J200. Cushing was s. Samuel (J64). (Vinalhaven,p.51) In 1785 a petition was presented to the General Court by those who came to Vinalhaven Island aft the end of the Rev War, asking that they be confirmed in title to the land they were occupying. Three of the name Thomas were among the signatures on the petition: Samuel (J64), his s. Samuel (J195) and "Cushen Thomas (a minor)"(J200). (Carver,p.97)
Cushing was a Dea. and the choir leader of the Baptist Church. (Vinalhaven,p.51)
Descendants of Cushing are from Jones. See also note J395.

J206. Consider prob was a Pvt in the Rev War 1775 and 1777. (Mass SS Rev) However, this might have been Consider (J78).

J207. Prince was a Pvt in the Rev War. He served at the taking of Dorchester Heights in Mar 1776 (see note J48). (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI) He was a blacksmith. (Hing,p.241)

J208. Charles m. Dux 20 Nov 1777 Deborah Brewster. (VR; Brewster,p.97) In the Rev War he enlisted as a fifer 1 May 1775, and again 1777. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-App 297075) He is said to have been later "promoted to the rank of Colonel for his brave services." (Sinnett,p.11) He and Deborah rem. to New Meadows, Brunswick ME soon aft the end of the Rev War. Their descendants are given in Sinnett (pp.1-4; and see also Nat.Pen. W26523.
Charles was b. Dux 12 Jan 1758/9. (Sinnett,p.1; Nat.Pen.W26523; DAR App 297075) His parents are shown by the fact that on 19 Jun 1820 the "mother" of Charles named "Susanna", who was then "93" yr old, was living with him. (Nat.Pen.cited) The only Thomas in Dux who then had a w. or wid. Susanna was William (J72). She was Susanna Howland, b. 4 Mar 1728/9 (see note J72). William and Susanna clearly were the parents of Charles (J208). (DAR App cited)
See note D90 for a prior erroneous identification of Deborah's h. Charles.

J209. Edward Southworth was a Pvt in the Rev War in the MA Continental Line, and also a Sgt. and Quartermaster, 1st Plmth Co. Regt. (Mass SS Rev; Southworth,p.50)
Southworth (p.50) says Mercy was "dau John"; but Dux VR show the birth of Mercy to Joshua and Mercy, and no birth of a Mercy to John.

J210. Peleg "of Dux" was a minuteman 19 Apr 1775 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev) Peleg (J210) is the only Peleg found in Dux at this period. See notes J423 and J424.

J211. Joshua served in the Rev War 1776, 1777 and 1778. (Mass SS Rev; Nat.Pen.W26532) Joshua's family and his descendants are almost entirely taken from Thonaston (v.2, pp.425-7), Nat.Pen.cited, and DAR App 618434. However, Thomaston is confused as to the earlier generations. In addition to the error noted in note J73, Peleg (J210) who was s. Joshua (J73) and Mercy did not rem. from Dux to V.Hav., as Thomaston says but lived and d. Dux. (VR; 1790, 1800 and 1810 censuses) Joshua (J211), s. Joshua (J73), as well as Joshua (J426), s. Peleg (J210), did rem. from Dux to V.Hav. Peleg of V.Hav. was Peleg (J431), s. Joshua (J211), not of Joshua (J73). Also Benjamin (J427) and George (J430) were sons of Joshua (J211), not of Peleg as Thomaston says. (DAR App 618434; Nat.Pen.cited) See also note J426.

J222. James graduated from Harvard College 1778. He became a schoolmaster, a magistrate, and was Representative of Bridg 1790. (Winslow,v.2,p.737) He was prob James "of Bridg" who was Pvt minuteman 19 Apr 1775 in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev)

J223. Winslow of Bridg was a Pvt in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev)

J230. The 1850 census of Lebanon CT shows Peleg 71 with the following family: B.I.40 (female), Sarah M.9, Mary C.5, James I.3, Caroline C.2, George H.1, and Josiah Cady 75. These ch. prob were not ch. of Peleg but were prob gr.ch. "B.I." may have been their mother.

J242. Henry and his w. Hannah appear in the 1850 census of Norwich CT. Living with them was an unusual collection of people named Thomas. The compiler was able to identify only Alfred 28, who is listed with Martha "J." 24. They are prob J457. The others in the order in which listed were: George H.28 b.NY, Barbella (?) G.28 b.CT, Alice I.8 b.ME, then after Alfred and Martha J. came Caroline L.20 b.CT, Henry G.5 b.CT, William F.4 b.LA, and M.Alice 2 b.LA.

J275. Capt. Nathaniel Phillips was gr.s. Benjamin and Sarah (Thomas) Phillips (J6).

J302. Henry entered Harvard College 1813 but d. the next year. (Winslow,v.1,p.185)

J305. Francis graduated from Harvard College 1829 and became a physician in Scit, where he practiced many years. (Winslow,v.1,p.185; Briggs,v.2,p.479)

J310. Charles W. 46 is in the 1860 census of Marsh with Mary H. 42, and Charles B. 7. This may have been Charles Winslow's family.

J327. John was a lawyer of Plymouth. In 1832 he became a member of a firm engaged in whale fishery. Later he moved to NY where he was in the wholesale iron business. He was very successful and "accumulated a handsome property". (SE Mass,p.900)

J334. Nat.Pen.#R10511 shows Peleg (J164) had a dau Rebecca Simmons (Symonds) and dau Mary Sampson. Their marriages are from Marsh VR (pp.271, 273).

J335. See note J334.

J345. Marcia, assisted by Sarah (J347), wrote the "Memorials of Marshfield", which brought together much Marshfield history and many genealogical items. (Richards,p.99)

J347. See note J345.

J363. Charles enlisted as artificer in Capt. Walbach's Co., U.S.Artillery, in 1814. (Briggs,v.2,p.719)

J380. John was drafted in the War of 1812 and served three years. (Maine,p.386)

J381. This family was living in Brown at the time of the 1850 census.

J382. Six of the ch. of Joseph were living in Brown with a Saba Thomas 49 at the time of the 1850 census. She may have been a second w. of Joseph.

J384. Rev. Nathan Sheldon was not only clergyman but postmaster of Brown. (Sidney VR)

J389. This entry is from Whitman (p.236) and Jones.

J392. James succeeded his father as Town Treasurer of V.Hav. in 1827. (V.Hav.,p.37)

J395. Thomaston (v.2,p.426) seems wrong in saying Samuel, b. 1813, h. Mary Beverage, was s. Cushing (J200). Samuel (J195) is shown by his will to have had a s. Samuel who was under 21 in 1830. No evidence was found that Cushing had a s. Samuel. (Jones)

J400. Sarah, Austin, Mary and a s. of Deborah (J599,J600,J603,J602) are named in the 1891 will of Mary H. (Glover) Thomas (J399). See note J402. (Jones) The residences of these people in 1891 are from that will.

J402. The residences of Clara, Ruel and Ephraim B. (J604,J607,J612) in 1891 are from the 1891 will of Mary H., wid. Winthrop O. (J399) under which they received bequests. See note J400.

J403. Benjamin, a blacksmith, was Representative at the General Court 1827-28. "He was a man of more than ordinary ability as a public speaker, especially in town meetings, where he was noted for clearness of expression and uniform courtesy." (Hing,v.3,p.241)

J408. Prince was a butcher. (Hing,p.241) He appears in Penobscot Co. ME census of 1820. Descendants of Prince are from Jones.

J410. See note J72.

J418. See note D90. Deborah's marriage to Frederick Beth is confirmed by MI #34438.

J423. Josiah m. Dux 1798 Mehitable Peterson (VR). The Dux death record of Josiah, "h. Mehitable", states he was "s. Peleg". Peleg (J210), s. Joshua (J73),was b. Dux 1751, d. Dux 1814, and was undoubtedly the Peleg who m. Mary Jones there 1775. Mary seems to be the "wid. Thomas" who d. there 1824, ae 72 (VR). No other Peleg who could have been the father of Josiah was found recorded in Dux. He therefore is treated as the father of Josiah (J423). In any event, Jones says Peleg's estate shows he left the four ch. herein given to him, including Josiah.

Since the record of the death of Josiah (J423) in 1849 calls him "h. Mehitable" it might be thought he had not m. (2) 1834 Zeruiah Bradford, a marriage shown by Dux VR; but Jones discovered his will of 1840 refers to "my wife Zeruiah".

J424. Southworth (p.55) shows Jedediah Southworth m. 8 Apr 1801 "Elizabeth Thomas, b. 1781...dau Peleg and Mary (Steven) Thomas". Dux VR show only that "Elizabeth Thomas, w. Jedediah Southworth", was b. 4 Jun 1781. The only Peleg who had a w. Mary at this time was Peleg (J210), but Dux VR say she was "Mary Jonis (Jonos) of Charlestown". Papers in Peleg's estate show he had a dau Elizabeth Southworth. (Jones)

J425. The material in the tables regarding the marriage and family of John (J425) is from Warren (p.633), courtesy of Jones. The 1850 census of Warren ME shows John of Warren was b. in MA. Jones is inclined to believe that John of Warren was John (D446), s. Seth. This is certainly possible. However, the compiler believes it more probable that he was John (J425) for the following reasons.

There is no evidence, and no reason to believe, that John (D446) went to Maine. As far as is known, none of the family of Seth, the father of John (D446), went to Maine.

However, John (J425) had a bro Joshua (J426) who is known to have rem. to V.Hav., and brothers frequently left home and went together to other areas. See, for example, Joseph (J193) and his bro Ichabod (J194); and Zebulon (D180) and his bro Simeon (D184); and see note J28. It is significant that John settled in Warren ME which is on the mainland of Maine opposite the island of Vinalhaven where Joshua lived; and that the ch. of Joshua all resided in Rockland or Thomaston, both of which are only about 5 miles from Warren. This suggest that John (J425) rem. and settled close to his bro Joshua, and that Joshua's ch. settled even closer to their uncle John.

There is one apparent difficulty with this thought. Dux VR show that Elizabeth (J424), sis John (J425), was b. 4 Jun 1781, while Warren (p.633) says John of Warren was b. 26 Jul 1781. However, the Dux record was not contemporaneous. It reads: "Elizabeth Thomas, wife of Jedediah Southworth" was b. that date. It was made after she was married and could well be off a year or two---see, for example, note D206 which deals with a similar record of Isaiah (D297). Furthermore, Cyrus Eaton's History of Thomaston was found to be quite inaccurate in certain instances (see notes J73, J211, J395 and J426), and his Annals of Warren may also have errors. The 1850 census of Warren ME shows John was then ae 68, which indicates that he was b. 1782.

Though by no means conclusively proven, it seems very possible that John (J425) was John of Warren ME.

J426. Dux VR show four ch. of "Joshua and Lydia" who were b. Dux, and these same ch. are shown in Thomaston (v.2,p.425) as ch. of "Joshua 2d" of V.Hav., thus identifying "Joshua 2d" of V.Hav. as the same person as Joshua who had been of Dux with a w. Lydia.

MI #34506 shows one of these four ch., Mercy S. Thomas (J654), was dau Joshua and Lydia F. (King) Thomas, thus identifying the w. of Joshua 2d. Dux VR show Joshua, h. Lydia, was b. 20 Jul 1791.

Thomaston (v.2,p.425) says that the parents of Peleg of V.Hav. and of his bro Joshua were Joshua and Mercy. Joshua (J73) was the Joshua who had a w. Mercy---see note J73. However, their s. Peleg (J210) did not rem. from Dux but lived and d. there (VR; censuses; see note J210); and their s. Joshua (J211) who did rem. to V.Hav. was b. Dux 3 Aug 1753 (1759?). (DAR App. #618434; Nat.Pen. #W26532). This was at least 32 years bef the h. of Lydia was born. It was Joshua (J211) and his w. Mary Burgess (DAR App. cited), not Joshua (J73) and Mercy, who were the parents of Peleg (J431) of V.Hav., b. Dux 24 Apr 1789 (DAR App. cited). See also note J211.

DAR App. cited shows Lydia F. King m. Joshua who was b. 7 Jun 1783, s. Joshua (J211). It seems to have overlooked the fact that the Joshua who was b. that date (J428) d. Dux 14 Nov 1784 (VR). Joshua 2d, h. Lydia, was Joshua (J426), s. Peleg (J210), not of Joshua (J211). (Jones) Joshua 2d, b. 20 Jul 1791, could not have been s. Joshua (J211) for the latter had a s. William (J432) b. 19 Sep 1791 (DAR App. cited; Nat. Pen. cited).

J430. George was a ship-builder for many years. (Thonaston,v.2,p.425)

J432. This family is from the 1850 census of N.Hav. and DAR App. #618434.

J457. Alfred was a manufacturer at Columbus OH. (Haskin,p.74) See note J242.

J472. E.Bridg VR have an entry of the marriage of "Eliza Thomas of Marsh" to Willard Keith on 23 Sep 1827; but the published VR follows this entry with the following: "/This entry crossed out and marked 'Error'./" Apparently the marriage did not take place at that time. Eliza is identified by another entry which is not marked as an error and which shows "Eliza, w. Willard Keith", was b. 1798. Elizabeth (J472) is the girl who has this birth date. Jones agrees.

J506. William Appleton attended New York University. He settled on the estate of his gr.father, Gen. John Thomas (J48) and became a gentleman farmer. (SE Mass,p.900)

J558. John Baker enlisted 1 Sep 1861 in Co.L, 1st Maine Cavalry. He returned home in Aug 1864 and d. 14 Sep 1864. (Winslow, v.1,p.168)

J561. Edward was a 2d Lieut. in 22d Regt. OH Vol. Inf. in Civ War. (Jones)

J570. Shepherd Sawtelle was a member of Co.I, 9th Maine Regt. of Volunteers. (Winslow, v.1,p.169)

J571. John Hart Kittredge was Clerk of Courts. (Winslow,v.1,p.170)

J573. Daniel Tiffany was a member of Co.C, 22d Regt Maine Volunteers. (Winslow,v.1, p.169)

J580. John Glover was a physician at West Medway and Worcester. (Jones)

J585. Jewett Turner was Pvt in Co.B., 8th Maine Volunteer Inf. in Civ War. (Waterman, v.2,p.628)

J589. Addison James was a cattle man and farmer, blind about 30 yr. (Waterman,v.2, p.629)

J612. Ephraim B. was left a bequest in the will of Mary H., wid. Winthrop O. (J393). He was perhaps s. Augustus (J402), for other ch. of Augustus and of his bro. Alexander (J400) were left bequests. See notes J400 and J402. Information is from Jones.

J613. "Lucy D. Currier" was apparently involved in the probate of the will of Mary H., wid. Winthrop O. (J399). She may have been Lucy D. Thomas, dau Alexander, and m. a Currier. See also notes J402 and J612. Information is from Jones.

J614. Benjamin was a gunsmith. (Hing,p.241)

J615. William was a blacksmith. (Hing,p.242)

J616. Reuben was a shipsmith. (Hing,p.242)

J618. David was a "manuf'r of castings". (Hing,p.242)

J625. John was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ,v.5,p.38)

J626. Allen was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ,v.5,p.38)

J627. Edwin was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ,v.5,p.38)

J640. Thomas Given was a ship-joiner, then a carpenter and builder at Brunswick ME. (Sinnett,p.2)

J643. Where Pine Grove (p.71) differs from Sinnett (p.3) on the family of Ellis (J643), Pine Grove is followed as the information is from the cemetery records. It is not known where Sinnett got his information. Sinnett is obviously wrong in saying that Paulina, first w. of Ellis, was b. 20 Oct 1856, m. 13 Oct 1856, and had Jacob (J820) b. 7 Nov 1855, d. 7 Jul 1878. Pine Grove shows Paulina d. 14 Nov 1855, ae 21 yr, 2 mo; and that Jacob d. 23 Jul 1880, ae 24 yr. This indicates Paulina was b.c.Sep 1834 and d. 14 Nov 1855; and Jacob was b. 7 Nov 1855 and d. 23 Jul 1880, ae 24 yr, 8 mo. Paulina's marriage was certainly bef 1856, prob 13 Oct 1854.

J650. James' ch. Frederick and Mehitable are based on the 1850 census of Dux

J651. Ebenezer Stephens, a shoemaker, was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Nat.Pen. #320760; Mass SSM Civ,v.5,p.710) Ebenezer was b. 1810 according to Dux VR, but the soldier was said to have been 44 in 1864 (Mass SSM Civ) and 65 in 1885 (Nat.Pen.). There seems to be no doubt, however, of the identity. Sarah's pension application says she was Sarah T. Baker and that she m. Marsh Eben S.Thomas. Marsh VR (p.269) show the marriage of Ebenezer S. Thomas of Dux to Sarah T. Baker of Marsh on 6 May 1832, and the birth of Sarah 28 Nov 1809 (p.246). Dux VR seem clearly right in saying Ebenezer was b. 1810 rather than 1820, for Ebenezer surely did not m. at age 12 a woman 11 yr. older than he.

J661. William was a merchant. He became State Senator. (Thomaston,v.2,p.425)

J663. Robert was a lime manufacturer. (Thomaston, v.2,p.426)

J702. Orlando was a soldier of the 4th Maine Regt. (Jones)

J728. John Jenks graduated 1886 with an A.B. Degree. He was Phi Beta Kappa. He received his A.M. from Harvard, and also his M.D. 1899. He became a neurologist in Boston. In World War I he served in 1915 as Lieut.Col. in the British Royal Army Medical Corps, and in 1918 as Maj. in U.S.Army Medical Corps, being Chief of Medical Services, Base Hospital #7. (Haskin,p.140)

J731. See note J735.

J735. The dates of birth and death of Lucius (J735) are from Nat.Pen.Certificate #1088754, as is the fact that he d.unm. Lucius 12 is found living with Isaac 86 and Mary A. 45 in Marsh 1850 census. This would seem clearly to be Isaac (J271) and his dau Maryan (or Mary Ann) (J475). Isaac had no bro and had only one s., Zenus, who lived to maturity. It would seem quite likely that Lucius was a member of the family, and if so he must have been s. Zenus (J474), who had ch. b. 1826, perhaps 1828, 1829, 1832 and 1835. Zenus, his w. and his ch. who were b. 1832 and 1835 were in the 1850 Marsh census, living together but not with Isaac. In the 1860 Marsh census we find Mary A. 56 with Lucius 22; and Zenus 58 with Elizabeth 33. Elizabeth may well have been a dau whose birth, like that of Lucius, was not recorded in time to be in the published VR.

Lucius was a Pvt in the Civ War. He was a shoemaker, res. Marsh. (Mass SSM Civ, v.4,p.254; Richards, v.1,p.172; Nat.Pen.#1088754)

J736. Frank Rogers (J886) and John Dana (J887) were gr.ch. of John Briggs (J500). (Briggs,v.2,p.723) Arthur Coffin (J738) was the father of John Dana (J887) (M.H.Thomas). Frank R. (J736) was prob the father of Frank Rogers (J886). The marriage and ch. of John Dana and of Frank Rogers are given by Briggs (v.2,pp.978-9). Adelaide A., w. Frank R. (J736), is from the 1900 Boston census.

J738. "Arthur C. Thomas" m. 11 Jul 1883 Abby Rosella Deming. (Deming,p.399) No Arthur C. Thomas was discovered other than Arthur Coffin (J738). See Note J736.

J751. Eber Davis graduated from Maine Agricultural College. (Winslow,v.1,p.168)

J754. Charles Dura graduated from the University of Maine with the degree of Bachelor of Civil Engineering, and practiced as a civil engineer. (Maine,p.386)

J756. John Franklin was a Boston architect. (Maine,p.386)

J783. Arthur Winslow was a bee man. (Waterman,v.2,p.628)

J785. Hing says (p.242) that George (J785) served in the Civ War.

J786. William was a painter. (Hing,p.242) He was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.3,p.458; Hing,p.242)

J791. Benjamin was a 1st Lieut. in the Civ War, also Regimental Quartermaster. (Mass SSM Civ, v.6,p.439)

J792. Wallace, then of Roxbury, was Pvt in the Civ War. He was wounded at the Battle of Hatcher's Run VA 27 Oct 1864 and was mustered out. (Mass SSM Civ, v.1,pp.28,814; Hing,p.242)

J793. Edwin was Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.6,p.91; Hing,p.242)

D796. Francis was a Sgt, but rose to be 1st Lieut. in 1862 in the Civ War. He was killed in the Battle of Gettysburg 1 Jul 1863. (Mass SSM Civ, v.2,p.53; Hing, p.242)

J797. Hiram, then of Waltham, was Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.3,p.670; Hing, p.242)

J824. This family is from the 1860 census. William H. was Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.5,p.290)

J828A. Josiah, a shoemaker, was a Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.4, p.254; v.5, p.667; Nat.Pen.App.#146577)

J831. Edmund was a mariner. He was a soldier in the 4th Maine Regiment. (Thomaston, v.2,p.426)

J837. Albert was an officer in the 2d Maine Battery. (Thomaston, v.2,p.426)

J878. Milton Halsey received his A.M. in Library Science from Columbia University 1942. He was Librarian of the Butler Library of Philosophy at Columbia University, and later from 1959 to his retirement was Archivist of Princeton University. He compiled a number of bibliographies, and he edited a number of books. (Who's Who in America, 1960-61).

In cooperation with William Henry Baldwin Thomas (J928) he compiled a mss. Genealogy of the Family of William Thomas (W1), which unfortunately was never published. He also collected a mass of material on the families of both William (W1) and John (J1) Thomas, and prepared a mss. of lines descended from Malachi (J901). The present compiler obtained a great deal of valuable information from these manuscripts for inclusion herein. See notes J922 and J928.

J922. Elizabeth Beaumont (Thomas) Greene was responsible for making available to the compiler the genealogical material on the family of John Thomas (J1) that had been collected by Milton Halsey Thomas (see note J878) and also the material he had compiled, with the assistance of William Henry Baldwin Thomas (see note J928),on the family of William Thomas (W1).

J928. William Henry Baldwin Thomas cooperated with Milton Halsey Thomas (J878) in the preparation of a manuscript Genealogy of the Family of William Thomas of Marshfield (W1). See note J878 and note J922.

William was a graduate of Harvard University in 1940. He was a founder, and became Secretary of the Orange County Historical Society of Orange, Virginia. (Letter from Alexander Wainwright of Princeton Univesity to the compiler, dated 12 Feb 1979)

NOTES on the

WILLIAM THOMAS FAMILY

NOTES on the WILLIAM THOMAS FAMILY

W1. William Thomas, the founder of this family, is said to have been one of those who financed the Mayflower Company in England. (New Plmth,Pt.1,p.309; Goodman's Pilgrim Republic,p.439) He is described as a "gentleman of Welch descent, possessed with ample means, and of an adventurous spirit". (Briggs,v.2, p.595) He is thought to have come from the Western border of England or from Wales. (Savage,v.4,p.282)

There is disagreement among the authorities as to when William came to America. Savage says he came 1640, prob being one of those who were with Rev. Richard Blinman when he came to Marsh that year from the border of Gloucestershire and Wales (see Planters,p.20). Davis (p.262), Briggs (v.2,p.595) and Thatcher (p.1) all say he came in the Mary and Ann in 1637. A William Thomas did come that year in the Mary and Ann, but he was 26 yr old (Hotten,p.26) whereas William (W1) was b.c. 1573 (Davis, Briggs, Thatcher---and see his gravestone below). The William who came in 1637 went to Newbury (VR; Topo Dict,p.183).

Furthermore, it is certain that William (W1) came bef 20 Jun 1637, the date the Mary and Ann arrived in Boston (Banks,p.181), for on 2 Nov 1636 William and his s. Nathaniel took over from John Winslow the indentured service of Edmund Weston; and on 7 Mar 1636/7 "Mr. Willm Thomas" is on the list of freemen who were in Plmth Colony. (Plmth Col, v.1,pp.45,53; v.2,p.105; and see Pope,p.451) Farmer and Goodman (op.cit.) say William came c.1630. This date is accepted by Richards. However, if he was a financial backer of the Mayflower Company it is very unlikely he would have been in America from 1630-36 without some record of his presence.

William was in Barns for a short time, and was Deputy from there to the Colony Court in 1641. However, the next year he was in Marsh. (Briggs,v.2,p.595) His estate adjoined that of Gov. Winslow. It was extensive enough so that he gave the Town "minister's lands" and land for a meeting-house. (Briggs,v.2,p.596)

William was one of the eleven founders of the Town of Marshfield, which was authorized to be a town by the General Court 2 Mar 1640. The first Town Meeting was held 27 Feb 1643/4, and it is claimed that this was "the first regularly organized Town Meeting in North America with a Moderator chosen to preside." William Thomas was chosen to be that Moderator. He was Assistant Deputy Governor of the Colony 1642-50 and a Member of the Council of War 1643. (Richards,v.1,pp.24-5; v.2,p.86; Thomas Bk., p.151; Briggs,v.2,p.595)

William's will was dated 9 Jul 1651. (4 Reg 319) His gravestone reads:

HERE LYES WHAT REMAINS OF WILLIAM THOMAS ESQ
NEW PLYMOUTH COLONY
WHO DECd IN Ye MONTH
OF AUGUST 1651 ABOUT
Ye 78th YEAR OF HIS AGE

(Memorials of Marshfield,p.96---see note J345; letter from Hanson Historical Society to A.M.Thomas; Marsh VR, p.427)

Secretary Nathaniel Morton of Plymouth Colony says William had "served in the place of magistracy, in the jurisdiction of Plymouth, divers years. He was a well approved and well grounded Christian, well read in the Holy Scriptures, and other approved authors, and a good lover and approver of godly ministers and good Christians, and one that had a sincere desire to promote the common good both of church and state." (New England Memorial, Cambridge 1669, p.162, quoted in New Plmth, Pt.2,p.13)

[Much of the information on the descendants of William (W1) is from Jones or M.H.Thomas, particularly information regarding the people who married into the Thomas family.]

W2. Nathaniel came to America with his father (see note W1). The "relict" of Nathaniel was "Mary". (Plmth Col, v.5,p.158) As to one alleged s. see note D4.

Nathaniel was an ensign in Capt. Myles Standish's Company in the Pequot Campaign of 1643, a Lieut. in 1648, and on 5 Mar 1654 he became a Capt. and succeeded Myles Standish in command. He was also in the 1653 expedition against the Dutch. (Briggs, v.2,p.599; Thomas Bk, p.151)

W4. Simon was a magistrate and a lay preacher of Block Island RI. (105 Reg 166)

W5. Nathaniel was Capt. of a Light Horse Troop in King Philip's War. (Briggs, v.2,p.600) He was Deputy from Marsh 1677. He was County Magistrate and, in both 1681 and 1685, was on the Council of War. In 1686 he was Clerk of the County Court. (Plmth Col, v.5,p.232; v.6,pp.220, 268) He was Representative to the General Court nine years, Councillor ten years, Probate Judge sixteen years, Judge of the County Court twenty-three years, and Judge of the Superior Court of Plmth six years. (Briggs, v.2,p.600)

Nathaniel served as Secretary of the Proprietors of the so-called "Major's Purchase", for which he received 250 acres of land. About 1694-5 he purchased 250 more acres from the Indians, situated in what is now the center of Hanson. He built a dam across the Indian Head River and erected a saw-mill there, said to have been the first dam in the Colony. In January 1977 the Nathaniel Thomas Mill Committee was formed "to preserve, promote and develop the Nathaniel Thomas Mill and Bicentennial Park and Garden Site." (Letter from Hanson Historical Society to A.M.Thomas)

The identity of the second w. of Nathaniel requires explanation. Jeremiah Cushing m. 11 Mar 1662 Elizabeth, wid. John Wilkie. They lived in Boston. Jeremiah was lost at sea. Elizabeth,in her will, mentions a dau Elizabeth Condy, and a gr.s. Jeremiah Condy. (Cushing,p.22) Although no marriage of Elizabeth Wilkie or of Elizabeth Cushing to a man named Condy was found, Capt. William Condy of Boston had a s. Jeremiah by his w. Elizabeth, b. 2 Jan 1682/3 (Boston VR,p.157; and see Marsh VR,p.388). This Elizabeth was undoubtedly the dau of Elizabeth (Wilkie) Cushing.

Next we find that Elizabeth Condy m. (2) Boston 31 Dec 1689 Andrew Dolberry (Boston VR, p.186; Clemens,p.77), and that Elizabeth Dolberry m. (3) Boston 3 Nov 1696 Nathaniel Thomas as his second w. (Marsh VR,p.22; Wyman,p.939; Davis,p.261; Richards,p.87).

The Marsh VR (p.388) and her gravestone (4 Reg 317) both show Elizabeth, w. Nathaniel Thomas, d. 11 Oct 1713 in her 61st yr (i.e.,b.c.1652-3). If Jeremiah Cushing did not m. wid. Elizabeth Wilkie until 1662 as Cushing says (p.22), and if the age of Elizabeth Thomas at death is correctly stated, Elizabeth Condy must have been dau of John Wilkie, although she is generally said to have been dau Jeremiah Cushing.

There are other explanations of the various surnames in the family and of the ancestry of Elizabeth who m. Nathaniel Thomas (see, for example, Davis,p.261; Briggs, v.2,p.604; and Hing,p.241), but the VR support only the one given above.

The father of Nathaniel's third w., Rev. Henry Dunster, was the first President of Harvard College. (Briggs,v.2,p.600)

W7. Davis (p.261) gives Nathaniel (W2) a dau Dorothy, although several authorities consulted do not. Davis is right. She is named as a dau of Nathaniel in the will of William (W1) dated 9 Jul 1651. (4 Reg 319)

W8. Among the papers in the estate of Nathaniel (W2) is an agreement dated 1 Mar 1674 between William (W3),Nathaniel (W5) and Isaac Little. This agreement provided that Mary, wid. Nathaniel (W2), should have the disposition of the residue of the estate "provided the other children consent thereto". (5 Plmth Col, p.158) Isaac Little must have m. an heir of Nathaniel (W2). He had a w. Bethia, who was clearly dau Nathaniel (W2). See article by Editor of MD in 24 MD 1. Furthermore, in a deed (24 MD 7) by Bethia, wid. Isaac Little, she refers to her "bro William Thomas" i.e. William (W3). See also W17.

W9. Nathaniel owned tan yards, a wharf and warehouses in Plmth, and iron works in Plymp. (Briggs,v.2,p.607)

W10. A Memorial of Guy Alfred Thomas in 101 Reg 66 (and see Virkus,v.7,p.427) says his line of descent was: Nathaniel (W5); Joseph 1666-1737, m. Ruth Fish; Joseph 1718-1780, m. Sarah Estes; Daniel 1750-1802, m. Ann Tallman, lived Easton NY etc. Nathaniel (W5) had a s. Joseph (W10) b. Marsh 25 Aug 1666; but "Joseph Thomas deceased the 13th day of July 1690" (Marsh VR,p.17). This entry referred to a man, not a child---deaths of young sons were entered with the names of both the son and the father (see Deaths on p.17 of Marsh VR). Only Joseph (W10), b. Marsh 1666, was in Marsh early enough to be the Joseph who d. Jul 1690. Neither Davis nor Richards show Joseph (W10) marrying or having any descendants.

It is highly significant that the will of Nathaniel (W5), the father of Joseph (W10), dated 29 Sep 1718, mentions as living eight of his ten ch. Joseph and Elisha (W14) were not mentioned. (Briggs,v.2,pp.605-06) Such omissions strongly indicate that these two ch. had d. and left no heirs.

The Memorial is talking about a Portsmouth RI family, not the family of Nathaniel (W5). No RI record of the birth of Joseph Thomas or of his marriage to Ruth Fish was found. However, the following entry may well record the birth of Joseph: "George Thomas of Portsmouth states that his son ---- was b. Newport Nov 1694". (4 RIVR--Newport, p.118) Ruth Fish was b. Portsmouth RI 2 Nov 1687, dau Daniel and Abigail (Mumford) Fish (4 RIVR,p.73; Savage,v.2,p.161). Joseph and Ruth Thomas had ch. b. Portsmouth RI in 1726 and 1732 (4 RIVR--Portsmouth,p.102). No record of the birth of their s. Joseph was found.

However, in the next generation we find Joseph Thomas m. Portsmouth RI 15 Mar 1737 Sarah Estes and had Daniel b. 3 Nov 1750 (4 RIVR, pp.45, 102). Ann Tallman was b. Portsmouth RI 9 Jan 1753, dau Benjamin jr. and Elizabeth Tallman.(4 RIVR 101) No marriage of Daniel to Ann Tallman was located in Newport Co., RI, but since the Memorial states they rem. to NY the marriage may have been recorded elsewhere.

Note that the first Joseph of this RI family was quite possibly b. 1694, his w. Ruth was certainly b. 1687, and they were having ch. b. as late as 1732. This was not Joseph (W10) who was b. Plmth 1666 and d. Marsh 1690.

W12. Joseph Otis was Judge of the Court of Common Pleas for Plmth 1703-14. He was Representative to the General Court 1710 and 1718. (Briggs,v.2,p.436)

W13. Richard and Martha (Woody) Pattershall were grandparents of Deborah Hitchbourn, the mother of Paul Revere. (Jones)

W15. Suffolk Probate Docket 8076 shows Joshua Thomas of Boston, "mariner", had a will dated 11 Nov 1742 and probated 16 May 1744 which bequeathed to his w. and to s. William, dau Deborah, dau Sarah, and dau Elizabeth. (Jones)

W22. See note J15.

W28. William joined the Rev.Army as a surgeon immediately aft the Battle of Lexington. He had previously been on the medical staff at Louisburg 1745 and at Crown Point 1758. (Thomas Bk,p.152; Mass SS Rev; Heitman; DAR-PI)

J.Shaw (p.47) gives the first w. of William as "Mercy Carpenter wid. Isaac Jackson". Boston VR show she was Mercy Papillon, dau Peter. She was not a wid. Plmth VR show the second w. of Nathaniel (W82), s. William (W28), was Jane Jackson. She was the wid. of Isaac Jackson.

W37. "When quite young, Priscilla was engaged to be married to Noah Hobart,... a poor schoolmaster studying for the ministry. John Watson, a widower and much older than Priscilla, sued for her hand. She consulted her parents and told young Hobart the circumstances. For her sake he released her and she married John Watson, who died in about two years, several months before her second child was born. [He is said to have been the richest man in Plmth Co. when he died. 18 Reg 365]

"About this time, the wife of a neighbor, Isaac Lothrop, died leaving a young infant. This child was brought to Priscilla to nurse with her own. In time Mr. Lothrop and Priscilla were married and lived together sixteen or seventeen years. He died....leaving a large estate.

"In the meantime Noah Hobart had married and become a settled minister, and his wife had died. After a suitable time Mr. Hobart visited the widow Lothrop and renewed his suit. Priscilla received him graciously but regretted she could not accept his proposal as she had promised Mr. Lothrop to care for his aged mother and not to marry as long as his mother lived. So Noah went on his way toward home, stopping for a day or two at a town on the way. Here he met a traveller just come from Plymouth, Priscilla's town. Being asked the news he replied, 'Nothing in particular save old Madam Lothrop died last week.' Noah returned to Plymouth and in three weeks he and Priscilla were married, he being her third husband and her first lover." The Capen Family, by Rev. Charles Albert Hayden, 1929, pp.34-5. This is an abridgment of a more picturesque account by Priscilla's great-grandchild recorded in 27 Reg 24-26.

W40. Edward was a Lieut. in the Rev War, a minuteman 19 Apr 1775. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI)

W48. Isaac left Plmth sometime in the late 1750s, and by 1760 he had sold his property there. "His family probably went from Plymouth to his mother's home in Pembroke where she was living." She had married Isaac Little, but he had d. 1758, so Isaac's family may well have gone to live with her.

In 1757 Isaac was one of the Commissaries in the Expedition to Crown Point. He was again in the army from Jul to Dec 1762. At the outbreak of the Rev War "Isaac of Pemb" was a minuteman and marched 20 Apr 1775 in Col.Anthony Thomas' Regt (see note J46). Briggs says this prob was Isaac (W48).

[The above in this note is based on Briggs, v.2,pp.644-45.]

There were two other Isaac Thomases in Pemb during the Rev War: Isaac (W93) and Isaac (W89). Isaac (W93) served later in the Rev War, but in his pension application makes no claim for service in Apr 1775. See note W93. Nothing was found indicating any service by Isaac (W89) during the War. Briggs seems right: Isaac (W48) was the minuteman.

W49. Thatcher (p.39) says Thomas Torrey m. Abigail (D70). But Plmth VR (17 MD 9) say the Abigail he was marrying was "of Pemb". Abigail (W49) is the Abigail of Pemb who could have m. him. See note D70.

W54. Nathaniel Ray received his A.B. degree from Harvard College 1751. He was a Loyalist, and was a commissioned officer in the British Army.

He pushed through the Town Council of Marshfield (by only one vote) a resolution which deprecated the Boston Tea Party. Thereupon many citizens of Marsh signed a paper protesting the resolution, including the following Thomases: Anthony (J46),Briggs (J158), Nathan (J59), Nathaniel (J149), Nehemiah (J40), William (J58), William jr. (J168), and Zenas (J132). (Carver,p.52) See also note J58.

After the evacuation of Boston by the British, Nathaniel Ray fled in Apr 1776 to N.S. He settled in Windsor and never returned to the United States. He became Collector at Windsor. His family was left behind, but about 1784-5 they also went to N.S., except for Capt. John (W101).

Capt. John remained in Marsh, and in Aug 1785 "took steps to salvage" such of his mother's interests as might remain in Massachusetts. His petition to the Legislature was granted 22 Feb 1786. (Briggs,v.2,pp.655-59; Richards,p.87)

Except for his marriage and the births of his ch, information about the family of Nathaniel Ray (other than John (W101)) is from Jones and M.H.Thomas. The VR and the Marsh historian show Sarah Deering, w. Nathaniel Ray, was dau Henry and Elizabeth Deering (Boston VR, p.186; Richards,p.87), not Henry and Sarah as Briggs sa says (p.658).

W63. John was a Loyalist who rem. to N.S. during the Rev War. (Jones)

W72. Josiah was a Pvt in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI) The deaths of Priscilla (W117) and of Josiah (W119) are from Col.Cen. (Jones)

W79. Joshua was Judge of Probate for Plmth Co. for 29 yr (Plmth Ch, p.669). Previously he had been Aide-de-Camp to Gen. John Thomas (J48) in the Canada Expedition 1776, serving as Capt. and Adjutant. (Thomas Bk, p.152; Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; Heitman)

W81. Joseph served as a Capt. of Field Artillery in the Rev. War, later as Maj. (Thomas Bk,p.152; see Mass SS Rev,p.602; Nat.Pen. #S33799; Heitman)

W82. Nathaniel was a minuteman Pvt 19 Apr 1775 in the Rev War, and perhaps served again 1777. (Nat.Pen. #W1667; Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI; Weston,p.133)

W83. John was a Surgeon's Mate in the Rev War. (Mass SS Rev; Heitman) He was a member of the NY Assembly. (Virkus,v.2,p.229)

W89. See notes W48 and W93.

W90. Nathaniel was a Sgt minuteman 19 Apr 1775, later a 1st. Lieut. 1776. (Mass SS Rev; DAR-PI)

W92. Briggs notes (v.1,p.380ff; v.2,p.617) that Enos rem. to Salem 1791 where he was a builder of ships, including the U.S.Frigate Essex 1798-99.

W93. Briggs (v.2,p.648) says Isaac (W93) d. 23 Dec 1830. This seems clearly wrong. Hanson VR state that the Isaac who d. that date was "84 y." Isaac (W93) would have been only 80. The Isaac who d. that date seems to have been Isaac (W89) who would have been in his 84th yr. and within three mo. of reaching his 84th birthday in Dec 1830. But conclusively, the family bible in the possession of the ch. of Daniel Webster (W326), of which the compiler has been furnished a copy, shows that Isaac (W93) d. 29 Sep 1819; and the pension application of Isaac's wid. Averick (Nat.Pen.#S13999) also gives this as the date of his death.

Isaac (W93) was always hard of hearing. He served in the Rev War as Pvt each year from Oct 1775 to 1781. He was wounded in the thigh in the Penobscot Expedition 1779. (Nat.Pen.#S13999; Mass SS Rev)

Much of the information on the descendants of Isaac (W93), including the copy of the bible record mentioned above, was furnished by A.M.Thomas.

W98. 105 Reg. 167 says Nathaniel (W98) had "the same name" as his father, which would be Nathaniel Ray, and Jones (on the basis of her "William Thomas Manuscript") carries his name as such. However, his birth is entered in Marsh VR (p.59) as "Nathaniel". M.H.Thomas so carries him. The compiler follows the VR and M.H.Thomas.

Nathaniel had his A.B. from Harvard College 1772. He "was a friend of the Duke of Kent (father of Queen Victoria) when he was on the American station and the Duke erected a monument to his memory in the church at Halifax." (105 Reg 167) See also note W105. Both Jones (on the basis of her "William Thomas Manuscript) and 105 Reg 167 say Nathaniel d. 1810. M.H.Thomas, however, says he d. 12 Aug 1825. M.H.Thomas apparently did quite a bit of research in N.S. on this family as he has more detailed information on it than found elsewhere, including the exact date of this death. It seems prob that there was confusion with the date of death of Nathaniel's mother, Sarah (W54), who did d. 1810. M.H.Thomas is followed.

W101. John m. Lucy Baker (Marsh VR, p.176) as Richards says (p.88). She is called Lucy on her tombstone (4 Reg 317). Briggs, (v.2,p.661) appears to be mistaken in saying she was Sarah Baker.

As for John's second w. Lucy Turner, Richards (p.88) says she was dau Barker and Polly (Stoddard) Turner, while Briggs (p.661) says she was dau Nathaniel Turner and sis Barker. Her birth record was not found. However, Scit VR show Barker Turner m. Polly Stoddard 7 Jan 1808. As Lucy was b.c. 1771 and m. John (W101) in 1806, Briggs was correct: Lucy Turner was sis Barker.See note W54 for more on John (W101).

W105. Charles, then a Lieut. in the British Army, was accidentally shot in a road house in Shelbourne N.S. by a fellow officer, Robertson. He d. at Government House on 17 Aug 1797 in the arms of the w. of the Governor of N.S., Sir John Wentworth, she being Lady Frances Deering Wentworth, a cousin of Charles, whose mother was a Deering. Prince Edward (father of Queen Victoria, formerly the Duke of Kent--see note W98) was present, and later erected a stone to the memory of Nathaniel in St. Paul's Cemetery, Halifax N.S., which read,in part, that it was erected "as a Testimony of High Friendship and Esteem by Lieut. General His Royal Highness PRINCE EDWARD his Colonel." (M.H.Thomas) See note W98.

W124. John Boice graduated from Harvard College 1806, A.M.1809. He was a Colonel. (7 Reg 101) He was Clerk of the Courts of Plmth Co. for more than 30 yr. (Plmth Ch. p.690); President of Old Colony National Bank; and Member of the Constitutional Convention 1820. (M.H.Thomas)

W125. William was a lawyer. (1850 census) In 1882 bef he d. he was the oldest living graduate of Harvard College (Goodman's Pilgrim Republic,p.439).

W127. This family is from J.Shaw, pp.47, 61.

W137. William Barber was Rector of Christ Church, Duanesburgh NY for 14 yr. (Jones)

W138. Abraham Lansing was Surrogate of Albany Co., NY, 1787-1808, and NY State Treasurer 1803-1809 and 1810-1812. (M.H.Thomas)

W139. "Deborah Thomas of Pemb m. John Briggs 23 Oct 1796 at Pemb" (Scit VR). John's parents, his b. and marriage to Deborah Thomas are shown in Briggs (v.2,p.275), but Deborah is not further identified,and the family is not carried burther.

Among the baptisms in Pemb is the following: "21 Jan 1798 Deborah Thomas, dau John Briggs, now res. Salem" (50 Reg 320) Salem VR show John Briggs d. 20 Jan 1821 "ae 51 /50/", and also that "Deborah, w. John Briggs", d. ae 45, citing the Salem Gazette of 9 Jul 1813. Deborah (W139) would have been in her 43d yr in 1813. Deborah (D355), the only other Deborah of Pemb found, would have been only 40; and Deborah (J224) who was 45 was not of Pemb, and furthermore she m. Noah Hobart (Winslow,v.2,p.737). Jones and M.H.Thomas agree Deborah (W139) m. John Briggs.

W141. Cushing (pp.97,182) says Thomas Cushing, b. Pemb 15 Oct 1770, s. Elijah and Anna (Thomas) Cushing (W88), m. Scit 20 Nov 1795 Ruth Turner. However, Jones points out the error. There were two Thomas Cushings, each b. 1770: Thomas, s. Elijah and Anna (Thomas) Cushing (W88) who was of Pemb; and Thomas, s. Hawke, who was of Scit. The latter was known as "Dea. Thomas". A Thomas Cushing m. Scit 1795 Ruth Turner of Scit., and a Thomas Cushing m. Pemb 1812 Ruth Thomas, dau John Thomas of Pemb. It would seem that Dea. Thomas of Scit m. Ruth Turner of Scit, and that Thomas of Pemb m. Ruth Thomas, dau John of Pemb (W141).
This is conclusively sustained by the death records. "Dea. Thomas Cushing" d. Scit 1824, and "Ruth Cushing, wid. Dea. Thomas" d. Scit 1839. "Thomas Cushing" d. Hanson 1836 (Hanson was part of Pemb until 1820); and "Ruth Cushing, wid. b. Pemb dau John Thomas and Sarah" d. 1848---her grave showed she was "wid. Thomas" Cushing. She was Ruth (W141). Thomas Cushing of Pemb had m. Pemb Ruth Thomas, dau John of Pemb. Dea. Thomas Cushing of Scit therefore must have m. Scit Ruth Turner of Scit. (Jones)

W152. "Capt. Nathaniel Thomas from Pemb" m. Jane Briggs Jan 1813. He commanded the Kenawah and the Milton. (Briggs,v.1,p.395) No Nathaniel other than Nathaniel (W152) was found in Pemb at this period. The date of the marriage was 13 Jun 1813. (Col. Cen.)

W156. Mary, dau Nathaniel and Betty, was b. 1 Jan 1786 (Pemb VR). "Mary, w. Jacob Perkins", d. 20 Jan 1839 "ae 53y 19d" (Bridg VR). Jacob's w. clearly was dau Nathaniel. She did not m. Elnathan Cushing, as M.H.Thomas thought. That was Mary (D361). (Jones)
"Jacob Perkins b. Mary b. Susan b. 16 May 1776"; also "Susan Whitaker, second w. Jacob Perkins,..b.25 Sep 1795" (Bridg VR). Clearly "May 1776" is Jacob's birth date, not Susan's. Waterman (v.1,p.174) says he was s. Francis and Philibert (Keith) Perkins, who m. Bridg 2 Mar 1775 (VR); but it is wrong in saying he d. Aug 1846 "ae 83" (Bridg VR;Wood). That was Jacob, s. Isaac, b. Bridg 21 Sep 1763 (VR), who prob m. Bridg 2 Oct 1788 Abigail Leonard (VR). On Jacob see also Mitchell, pp.278-279.

W162. Isaac Smith Thomas (W162), b. 17 Oct 1793, is the only Isaac S. found in Pemb VR. His marriage to Wealthy Goodwin is recorded there. Only one Wealthy Goodwin is found in Pemb VR, the dau Amisiah and Thankful (Russell) Goodwin, b. 2 Jan 1777. The 1850 census shows Isaac S. ae 58 living with Wealthy ae 71. It seems that Isaac S. m. a girl 13-16 years his senior.

W164. The marriage of Charles is from Col.Cen. The ch. of "C. and Sophia" are from Pemb VR.

W168. Brockton VR show Abigail Thomas of Pemb m. (int.) 30 Jul 1837 John W. Bowman, but Pemb VR show Abigail m. 20 Aug 1837 John W. Brownson of N.Bed. There was only one Abigail of Pemb who could have m. 1837---Abigail (W168). No John Bowman or Brownson could be found in Brockton, Pemb, Hanson or N.Bed.

W173. Francis Ford was senior partner of Ford, Bassett and Nye, owners and outfitters of fishing vessels. He was Representative to the General Court 1836-38. (M.H.Thomas)

W174. Peleg Ford was a dealer in coal and wood. (M.H.Thomas)

W175. Mary Gray m. Daniel Bassett (Hing,v.2,p.36; Marsh VR,p.265), not Daniel Russell as Richards says (p.86).

W178. Charles Henry was Deputy Collector (1850 census of Dux).

W186. Isaac N. Stoddard graduated 1832 from Amherst College. (Jones) He was A.M. Amherst 1835. He was a school principal, Collector of Customs Plmth 1841-45, bank cashier and president 1845-91. (M.H.Thomas)

W188. Judge Davis graduated from Harvard College 1840. He was bro William Thomas Davis, author of Ancient Landmarks of Plymouth---see "Davis" in Bibliography. (Jones) He was active in political matters, a strong anti-slavery man. He was Member of the General Court 1862; attended the Convention which organized the Republican Party 1856; and was Judge of the 3d District Court of Plmth 1874. (M.H.Thomas)

W189. William Whitman practiced law in Bath ME 1839-44. He then rem. to Boston where he continued the practice of the law until 1851, when he was appointed Clerk of Courts for Plmth Co. (Whitman,p.87)

W196. Henry Livingston was a translator for the U.S. Department of State. (Thomas Bk, p.153)

W197. John was with the U.S. Military Telegraph Corps in the Civ War, later with military railroads. Aft the War he became Superintendant of Pennsylvania Railroad Lines. (Thomas Bk,p.153)

W199. William Reed was a minister. He was Rector of Holy Innocent's Church in Highland Falls NY for 20 yr, then became Archbishop of Orange. (Thomas Bk, p.154)

W209. Mary K., Eliza I, Cushing C. and Grace are from the 1860 census of Pemb.

W238. Caleb Church graduated from Bridgewater Normal School and became a school teacher. (Marsh VR,p.329) In 1850 he went to OH where he taught school in Hamilton Co. and in Adams Co. In 1867 he returned to Boston where he was in the Oil Polish Blacking business. He moved his residence to Walpole in 1874. (A.M.Thomas)

W241. See note W242.

W242. Isaac was a carpenter of E.Bridg on enlistment as Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ, v.5,p.566) He was the "last man in Marshfield who inherited the name of Thomas from Hon. William" (W1). (M.H.Thomas) Although one or two males had their births recorded in Marsh later than his, his death, recorded there in 1901, prob marked the end of the line in Marsh. However, see William (W241) who d. 1916, perhaps still in Marsh.

W253. William Sturgis received his M.D. 1892 from George Washington University, and became a physician of N.Y.C. He served as medical officer in the U.S. Navy in the Spanish-American War, and again as medical officer of the U.S. Navy Transport Service in World War I. (Thomas Bk, p.153; Virkus,v.2,p.230; v.5,p.668) He became Head of the Department of Immunology at St. Luke's Hospital, N.Y.C. (M.H.Thomas)

W260. Egbert was B.S. Harvard 1901. He became Manager and Assistant Treasurer of J.P.Morgan & Co. banking house. (M.H.Thomas)

W262. Joseph M. was Pvt in the Civ War. (Mass SSM Civ,v.5,p.485; Hing, p.243)

W278. Flavel was M.D. Harvard 1874; M.A. Shurtleff College IL 1876; V.S. Montreal Veterinary College 1879; B.Sc.Syracuse 1885; M.Sc. Syracuse 1886; D.V.Sc. McGill 1890; LL.D. Shurtleff 1892. (M.H.Thomas)

W287. Robert was Pvt in Civ War 1864-5. (Mass SSM Civ,v.5,pp.236,279)

W304. James Tillson was a moulder. (Hilditch)

W306. Joshua Cushman was a shoemaker. (Hilditch)

W333. Catherine Livingston received her A.B. degree 1928 from Barnard College. (Virkus, v.5,p.668) Arthur Jersild received his Ph.D. from Columbia University 1928. He became a professor. (M.H.Thomas)

W334. William Stephen graduated from Harvard University 1932. (Virkus,v.5,p.668) He was Director of the Museum of Arts and Sciences in Rochester NY. (M.H.Thomas)

W337. Edward Lawrence Katzenbach jr. was A.B. Princeton University 1940; Ph.D. Harvard University 1953; LL.D. Long Island University 1963. He was bro Nicholas deB. Katzenbach, former Attorney General of the United States. (M.H.Thomas)

W355. Beatrice Gertrude was a registered nurse. (A.M.Thomas)

W359. Direxa Ruth was a registered nurse. In 1929 she set up a factory in Spain for sterilizing catgut and packing it for surgical use. In 1933 she returned to the United States and settled in San Francisco CA. (A.M.Thomas)

W361. Carl served in World War I. (A.M.Thomas)

W373. Roby Eugene served 1941-45 in World War II in the South Pacific Theater in Co.C, 116th Engineers. (A.M.Thomas)

W377. Richard Charles served in World War II in the U.S. Air Force in the European Theater. (A.M.Thomas)

W378. Theodore Seaman served in World War II in the U.S. Navy in the Pacific Theater. (A.M.Thomas)

W380. Stanley Roby served in the Vietnam War 1969-73 on various destroyers of the U.S. Navy. (A.M.Thomas)
